

EXTRA

2 CENTS

BOSTON EVENING AMERICAN

8

New England's Greatest

Evening Newspaper

The only Boston evening newspaper with direct wire service from Associated Press and International News Service

VOL. XXXV—NO. 112

28 PAGES Copyright, 1933, by M. E. Newspaper Publishing Co.

BOSTON, SATURDAY, JULY 30, 1938

Entered as second-class matter at Boston Post-office

PRICE TWO CENTS

SHIRLEY IS ILL!

Ill from heat, excitement and overstrain, Shirley Temple was ordered to bed today by doctors hastily summoned to the Ritz Carlton hotel.

They said the dainty, dimpled little queen of moviedom must keep off her feet and have complete rest for at least 48 hours.

Ann Marsters reveals how Shirley Temple captivated her interviewers here — read this absorbing, intimate story on Page 3.

She had a temperature of 101.

The verdict of the doc-

Continued on Page 7, Column 2

THE WEATHER

Fair today, showers Sunday night or Monday.

Shirley Temple Brings Her Family of Dolls to Boston for a Visit

British Leaders Act!

War Debt Progress

By WILLIAM HILLMAN

Copyright, 1938, by International News Service

LONDON, July 30—Great Britain's Cabinet has formed a special committee to handle important preliminary, but formal, negotiations which have begun for Britain and France to settle their defaulted war debts to the United States.

This committee, it was learned today, consists of Prime Minister Neville Chamberlain, Chancellor of the Exchequer Sir John Simon, Foreign Secretary Viscount Halifax, and Sir Thomas Inskip, Minister for Coordination of Defense.

Chamberlain has instructed Sir John Simon to hold himself in readiness for possible forthcoming conversations with American Secretary of the Treasury Henry Morgenthau, who, while in Paris this week, began secret talks on the war debt problem with French government ministers.

INVITES MORGENTHAU

Prime Minister Chamberlain has invited Secretary Morgenthau to come to London, but the American Treasury Department head referred this invitation to President Roosevelt.

Chamberlain, I understand, has instructed Simon to effect drastic economies in a national expenditure to enable covering that part of the war debt settlement which would be required by treasury financing if an agreement is reached.

London is awaiting signs of President Roosevelt's reactions on the war debt subject and the British government is anxious to start real discussions.

STARTED BY KENNEDY

Preliminary talks were launched several weeks ago between Chamberlain and American Ambassador Joseph P. Kennedy and they were carried forward when Morgenthau and American Ambassador William C. Bullitt met in Paris with French Foreign Minister Georges Bonnet and French Finance Minister Paul Marchandeau.

The British are more anxious than the French for war debt preliminaries to get under way and reach some substantial ground whereas Marchandeau would prefer repayment beginning next year when the French money market will be stronger and new French internal loans are floated. They want a settlement as quickly as possible.

They are willing to start repayment possibly this year, or at least reach an agreement to repay.

RECOVER AFTER CRASH

BROCKTON, July 30—Harry S. Fulton, 40, and Albert G. Mackins, 40, both of Abington, were recovering today from injuries received when their car blew a tire and crashed into a pole on Quince street.

GO Greyhound RACING
Daily Double BOGS TONIGHT
WONDERLAND REVERE

SIR THOMAS INSKIP

SIR JOHN SIMON

British Public Told of War Debt Plan

By KINGSBURY SMITH

International News Service Staff Correspondent

LONDON, July 30—An officially inspired move to prepare the British public for the United States is under way. The move is reflected by statements which are now appearing almost daily in the British press, urging the necessity of clearing up what is described here as the only major cause of misunderstanding between the two great English-speaking nations.

Furthermore, the debt drive is assuming a non-partisan character. Laborite and Liberal quarters are joining the government and its supporters in suggesting a new settlement which would enable Britain to resume payments.

All the talk here now is regarding a possible settlement based on elimination of interest and reduction of the principal to a point compatible with Britain's present economic ability to pay.

Also suggested is flotation of a long-term loan in the United States to help Britain meet the payments.

Lord Catto, director of the banking house of Morgan, Grenfell & Co., in a letter to the Times of London, said he believed a loan could be raised in the United States on an interest and sinking fund basis, over a period of 40 years that would place such limited burdens upon the resources of England and its exchanges that they would never seriously be felt.

Henry F. Grady, vice chairman of the United States Tariff Commission, former chief negotiator of reciprocal trade agreements, and the administration's foremost authority on international trade, is already in London, presumably on the same mission.

Thus the United States, in effect, has established an unofficial technical mission to support Secretary of the Treasury Morgenthau in his conduct of preliminary debt negotiations with French Foreign Minister Georges Bonnet and French Finance Minister Paul Marchandeau.

VISCOUNT HALIFAX

British Plan Bomb Protests

LONDON, July 30 (INS)—Plans for a series of regional conferences throughout Great Britain to protest against continued aerial bombardment of open towns in Spain and China were made public today by an organization known as the International Peace campaign.

The conferences will begin early this fall, it was announced. At the same time money will be raised for food and medical supplies to be sent to care for civilian bombing victims.

Duce Hits Back

Row Fells Pope

By FRANK GERVAISI

International News Service Staff Correspondent

ROME, July 30—Premier Mussolini, with astounding bluntness, boldness, and speed, replied personally today to the attack of Pope Pius on "exaggerated nationalism."

"Everyone must know that even in the matter of race we will march straight on!" Il Duce retorted.

"To say that Fascism has imitated anybody or anything is absurd!"

Mussolini's ire was obviously aroused by the Pontiff's reference to "disgraceful imitation" of Germany.

The Fascist dictator's terse declaration was made following a hasty conference with Achille Starace, Fascist party secretary, who went to Forlì to meet his chief.

DUCE ANNOYED

Immediately following the conference, Mussolini plainly annoyed, hopped into a plane and took a brief spin over the Adriatic. His brief reply to the Pope was made in the course of a speech today to a group of party officials.

Pope Pius, it was learned at the same time from unimpeachable Vatican sources, has completely broken down physically as the result of the turn Italian racial policy has taken in the last few days.

When the Pope yesterday mentioned some "news" he had received, he referred to a long meeting with the Italian government's ambassador to the Holy See three days ago, it was ascertained on high authority. His attack on Italian racialism and aping of Germany followed.

After his talk with the Italian diplomat, the Pope was said to have appeared in a semiconscious condition, with his head buried in his hands.

POPE FACES FIGHT

The objectives of the Italian government on the race issue, it was believed, were made plainly clear to the Pope by the ambassador, and some direct reference to Catholic Action, which the Pope so vigorously defended yesterday, was involved.

Now, apparently sick at heart and sick in body, the Holy Father must face what is likely to prove his greatest fight since the signing of the Lateran treaty.

For Mussolini's tart rejoinder to the Pontiff's bitter attack foreshadowed a relentless battle between the Church and the state on the race question, and no one dares foretell its end.

"He who strikes at Catholic Action strikes at the Pope," warned the Pontiff from his Castel Gandolfo villa, as he denied as "crazy words" the contention that there is an unbridgeable doctrinal divergence between Catholic Action and Fascism.

La Guardia Is 'Mongrel' To Rome

ROME, July 30 (AP)—The Fascist newspaper Il Tevere today applied the Fascist race doctrine to Mayor La Guardia of New York by saying he had no right to belong to "our race."

La Guardia is partly Italian and partly of Hebrew origin.

Replying to another Rome newspaper, Il Piccolo, which recently characterized La Guardia as the "popular Italo-American mayor of New York," Il Tevere said:

"Popular La Guardia? Without doubt. At the time of sanctions in fact he was large and well-merited popularity by delivering a series of infamous speeches against Italy, seeking, mongrel that he is, to take advantage of his origin (geographical, but not ethnological, because he does not belong to our race) to bring pressure on Italians of New York and open an abyss between them and Fascist organizations."

Weather vane SATURDAY, July 30

LOCAL—Fair today and probably tomorrow, followed by local thunder showers tomorrow night or Monday. Not much change in temperature. Gentle southwest and west winds.

NEW ENGLAND—Fair today and probably tomorrow, followed by showers tomorrow night or Monday.

THE MOON		BAROMETER
Aug. 18	Last Q	Aug. 18	10.00
Aug. 20	New	Aug. 20	10.00
August 2	First Q	Aug. 2	10.00
August 11	Full	Aug. 11	10.00

Barometer, 3.04 a. m.; Sunset, 8.07 p. m.
Light all vehicles at 3.37 p. m.
Barometer, 10.00
Humidity, 75
Wind Direction, NW
Wind Velocity, 10
High Water, 2.02 a. m.; 2.15 p. m.
Low Water, 8.17 a. m.; 8.18 p. m.

Hull Aide in Debt Talk

(Copyright, 1938)

WASHINGTON, July 30 (INS)—Secretary Hull has dispatched his principal economic adviser, Herbert Feis, to Europe to speak for the State Department in Anglo-French-American war debt negotiations now going on in London and Paris, it was learned today.

Henry F. Grady, vice chairman of the United States Tariff Commission, former chief negotiator of reciprocal trade agreements, and the administration's foremost authority on international trade, is already in London, presumably on the same mission.

Thus the United States, in effect, has established an unofficial technical mission to support Secretary of the Treasury Morgenthau in his conduct of preliminary debt negotiations with French Foreign Minister Georges Bonnet and French Finance Minister Paul Marchandeau.

Feis, head of the State Department's division of international economic affairs and its final authority on international exchange, sailed quietly from New York a week ago and arrived in London yesterday.

Grady, in Geneva last month an American delegate to the meeting of the international committee on raw materials, went undetected thereafter to Paris and was reportedly at Morgenthau's elbow during his exploratory talks on the basis for resumption of payment of the defaulted $9,158,170,763 French and British debts.

While professing no knowledge of an Anglo-French payment offer having been made, the treasury experts said an offer described in London dispatches would probably be "unacceptable" to the United States.

Shirley Wins Boston

All Hearts Open to Her

By ANN MARSTERS

The reporters were skeptical. Most of them had never met Shirley Temple—but they knew what to expect.

Sunshine!

Her Cutest Smile

Worth a Million

SHIRLEY TEMPLE
Dimples and All

Shirley would be (they thought) just a little brat. A spoiled little brat, full of poses and conscious superiority.

So the reporters sneered and chuckled a bit as they waited at the Ritz Carleton to be summoned into Shirley's presence.

And then, this is what happened.

One by one, the reporters were introduced to a little girl who stood, all alone, in the center of a big room. She smiled and said, "How do you do" to everyone.

Then she sat on a sofa and smiled and smiled while the cameramen snapped her picture.

"Please," she said, "don't take the pictures all at once—because I might blink at so many flashes."

When the cameramen had finished, the reporters clustered in a circle around her—and every one of them had given their hearts to little Shirley Temple!

Her conquest was as simple as that. And the interview that followed was a revelation to even the most skeptical.

SHIRLEY "ON HER OWN"

The Temple retinue included, besides Shirley, Mr. and Mrs. George Temple, one maid, and three representatives of 20th Century-Fox studio. They had driven from New York to spend two or three days in Boston, completing their sight-seeing tour of the east.

During the interview, Mr. and Mrs. Temple and the studio representatives, headed by Jack Mulcahy, stayed in the background—and Shirley was entirely on her own. No one was near to prompt her—and Shirley didn't need any prompting.

Her famous curls were hidden by a brown and white bandana which matched her linen suspender dress. Her dimples played about her mouth as she answered questions and looked from one reporter to the other.

"Are you keeping a diary, Shirley?" someone asked.

"Well," she said, "I started out to, but I haven't kept it up."

"Why not?"

Shirley pondered a second.

"I guess," she said, "I guess I'm just lazy."

Continued on Page 18 Column 3

Ann Marsters Chats With Shirley Temple

'Upside Down' Girl in R. I.

LITTLE COMPTON, R. I., July 30—Alyce Jane McHenry, now 14, the little girl from Omaha, Neb., who had the nationally famous upside-down stomach operation in 1935, today was enjoying her first vacation in the east since her famous operation.

Healthy and normal in every way, she rides horseback, swims, plays basketball and tennis and never has had a sign of pain since her operation at Fall River.

She came here to Goosewing beach alone to rest up before entering high school at Omaha this fall. Among her treasures is Pauline, the cat born at the South Pole, which Admiral Richard E. Byrd presented her while she was convalescing nearly three years ago.

Dog's Vacation 'On Meter'

WASHINGTON, July 30 (INS)—Peggy doesn't like to ride on railroad trains, so taxicab driver E. Erwin Dollar is going to make a lot of dollars driving Peggy and her owners from Washington to Cape Cod.

Peggy is an 8-year-old Boston terrier, pet of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Peake, the latter an employee of the National Park Service.

Twice before on vacation trips Peggy rode trains—and didn't like it. But she dotes on auto riding. So when the Peake's vacation starts today Peggy will start her ride—with Mr. and Mrs. Peake—in Dollar's taxicab to Cape Cod, 536 miles away.

Arriving there, Dollar will return to Washington—but a month hence, when the Peake's—and Peggy's vacation time is over, he'll drive up to Cape Cod and return them home. "The cab fare runs about $29 more each way than the railroad fare," says Mrs. Peake—"but it'll be worth it to Peggy."

Triumph! Boris Scares Brother

MONTREAL, July 30 (INS)—Admitting pictures of his brother, Boris Karloff, the screen's No. 1 menace, really frightened him, Sir John Pratt of England was here today en route to Australia to attend the second British Commonwealth relations conference at Sydney.

Sir John said his brother's real name is Henry Pratt.

Girl, 5, Dies in Trailer Fire

SALEM, N. H., July 30—Trapped by flames behind the locked door of a trailer in a camp ground here today, Ruth Chavez, 5, daughter of magicians appearing at a Methuen night spot, died of suffocation.

Lovell Hamlin, Rockingham race track employee, and fellow trailer camper, sought desperately but in vain to reach the strangling girl as dense smoke filled the trailer.

The parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ben

Cravez of Detroit, had tucked Ruth in her trailer bunk before leaving to fill their entertainment engagement in Methuen.

Hamlin was awakened by the girl's screams and rushed to her trailer. He saw smoke coming from crevices in the vehicle's structure. At the same time, Ruth's screams stopped as the deadly smoke cut off her breath.

Hamlin broke in a closed window, burning and cutting his hands. He gained entrance and struggled through the smoke, opening the door. But he was too late.

An ambulance was called but it broke down with engine trouble on the way to a doctor's office. The unconscious girl was transferred to a private car and attendants worked over her, but were unable to revive her.

Cause of the fire was undetermined.

OPENS MONDAY

WITH THE BEST RACING
OF THE 1938 SEASON
"BIG FIELDS" BEST HORSES-LEADING JOCKEYS

NARRAGANSETT

GRAND SUMMER MEETING

AUG. 1
THRU SEPT. 10
8 RACES DAILY

POST TIME 2:15

Let Us Outlaw Barbarism

EXPRESSING "horror and indignation at the barbarous slaughter of helpless women and children," the mayors of 33 American cities have protested against ruthless bombing of open towns.

This is support from a powerful source of the campaign of the Hearst newspapers against the BARBARITIES of modern warfare, because as the mayors say, it reflects a broad cross-section of American PUBLIC OPINION.

Mr. William Randolph Hearst in a signed editorial nearly a year ago wrote that:

"The butchery of air bombardment is inflicted upon non-combatants, including women and children.

"It is a FRIGHTFUL INDICTMENT of our alleged civilization that nations should desire to practice these horrors, even though permitted by any existing warfare."

But certainly, as Mr. Hearst then said, since there is such willingness and desire, "the immediate necessity of changing fundamentally the method and practice of warfare is obvious."

WHAT Mr. Hearst has repeatedly said, and what the 33 mayors join him in saying, is that world opinion must be mobilized against the INHUMANITIES OF WAR.

Why should anyone say or believe that it is impossible to humanize war?

Now is certainly the time, with all the civilized nations being driven by their dread of the fearful consequences of UNRESTRAINED BARBARITIES to see the need of international restraint, to weld world opinion into an AGREEMENT ON RESTRAINT.

Why wait for all culture and all human values to be reduced to ash heaps from which civilization MIGHT NOT RISE AGAIN?

Why wait for the supreme IDIOCY OF WAR to tell us what we already KNOW?

SURELY there are in all nations leaders with enough concern for the welfare of mankind, enough respect for the ideal of human brotherhood, NOT TO WANT WAR FOUGHT AGAINST WOMEN AND CHILDREN.

Let the world get these leaders together, as Mr. Hearst proposed last year, in a congress of nations to draft a new code of civilized warfare that will OUTLAW BRUTE BARBARISM.

Hunt Robbery Pair, Guard Me. Roads

OLDTOWN, Me., July 30.—State police guarded roads near here today in a search for Andrew Gallagher of Bangor and Alfred Labonte of Lewiston, named as suspects in the slugging and robbery of Lloyd Oakes, Milford garage attendant.

Although badly beaten over the head, Oakes staggered to a telephone to notify police. The two suspects recently escaped in a hail of bullets when police uncovered their hide-out at Wiscasset.

Found in Back Bay: Do You Know Him?

An unidentified man, apparently ill, was picked up early today while wandering near Massachusetts and Huntington avenues.

Police took him to Boston City Hospital. He was unable to give any clue to his identity, but kept repeating the name "Eugene Sullivan."

He is about 47, of medium build, light complexion.

Store Opens
11 O'clock Monday for After-Stocktaking
CLEARANCE

Spring and summer merchandise priced for immediate clearance. In most instances, intermediate markdowns have been taken.

Stearns

Oil Clipper Clue

Fear 15 Dead In Pacific Air Tragedy

Continued from Outside Page

caused by oil from the Hawaii Clipper, the flying boat remained in the air for about 20 minutes after her last radio message.

The lifeboats from the Meigs collected samples of oil from the surface to help determine whether it was from the flying boat.

If the Hawaii Clipper sank there, little hope was held of finding the wreckage; for the slick may lay over deep waters, ranging to a depth of 5532 fathoms (3212 feet). These waters, about 400 miles due east of a Bernardino atoll, are among the deepest around the Philippines.

FAILED TO RADIO

Pan American Airways headquarters in San Francisco held hope the oil was dumped on the surface by the flying boat for emergency landing and the clipper came down safely, subsequently drifting out to sea faster than the oil.

Pan American men here said they did not know about any "anchor" oil, reported aboard, but suggested the clipper might have dumped oil to lessen her load preparatory to alighting.

The clipper failed to radio an emergency landing was necessary, nor did she report later by her wireless which was capable of communicating while the flying boat drifted on the sea.

Pending further investigation, the Meigs was remaining in the same position at latitude 12.11 north, longitude 130.53 east. This was about 500 miles from Manila, or 65 miles east of the position given by the clipper when her radio went dead.

The spot was directly in line with the huge clipper's southern flying route on the 160-mile hop from Guam, last leg of her trans-Pacific journey from California.

Similar oil slicks indicated the last resting place of the Samoan Clipper, only other Pan-American flying boat to meet disaster in three years of flying over the Pacific. Seven men were killed when the Samoan Clipper exploded in midair on January of this year.

There was no indication of how disaster overtook the Hawaii Clipper, whose last radio report at 8:09 p. m. Thursday indicated that all was well.

She had mentioned rain and moderately rough winds. But her log showed no indication of a storm, which might have brought lightning and sudden death to her veteran crew of nine and six prominent passengers.

PLANES COMB AREA

More than half an hour after the message reporting the discovery of the slick was intercepted, Pan American Airways here had received no confirmation.

Others familiar with Far Eastern Pacific waters said there was little likelihood the oil came from any other source than the missing clipper. The position is in an area not traveled by steamers or planes.

Eight army and navy planes, sent out from their Cavite base on Manila Bay, Far Western terminus of the clipper lines, patrolled the area yesterday (Saturday) in Manila) without finding a trace of the plane or sighting the oil slick.

Six huge army bombers were under orders to take off again at dawn Sunday (Saturday afternoon in San Francisco) from Tacloban Island.

CARRIED ANCHOR OIL

The Meigs, which was only 87 miles away when the clipper sent its last report, was the first ship thrown into the search and carefully zigzagged over the area, gradually working East.

Sees Lodge For President

U. S. Senator Henry Cabot Lodge, Jr., today was called "Presidential timber" by Dr. Francis E. Townsend, founder of the Townsend Old Age Plan, here on a New England speaking tour.

"Cabot Lodge has the qualifications of a president," Dr. Townsend stated in his leisurely drawl during a press conference.

Beaming with geniality, the Old Age plan head declared he and his officers had no political aspirations.

"We haven't the qualifications," he stated simply.

"I don't know how friendly Senator Lodge is to us," he continued, "but we know he is a liberal thinker and has always treated us fairly. He is most conscientious and we are not despaired of getting him in the next two years to espouse our cause."

At the same time, Dr. Townsend lashed at Roosevelt spending policies and said that the $3,000,000,000 spending program would end in failure.

"That money will all find its way back into the banks in no time," he forecast. He added that he would speak in Massachusetts and Maine, urging election of men who embraced Townsend policies, before returning to the organization's headquarters in Chicago.

Before leaving Boston he predicted that his plan of $200 a month to all persons over 60 years of age would win out in Congress by 1940.

"Give us two more years of recession and you will see some drastic changes," he promised.

Kin Here Await Clipper Report

Two Greater Boston families hoped against hope today for some word of their loved ones aboard the missing Pan-American Airlines Hawaii Clipper, lost between Guam and Manila.

One was the mother and father of Dr. Fred C. Meier of Framingham, plant pathologist. They are Professor and Mrs. William H. D. Meier of State road, Framingham. Professor Meier is with the department of biology at Framingham Teachers' College. His son is a pathologist for the U. S. Department of Agriculture at Washington and is a world authority on air parasites.

The other family that bravely waited for news were the parents of John W. Jewett, co-pilot, who is a graduate of M. T. and a former track captain at that institution.

They are Mr. and Mrs. John Vernon Jewett of Northrop road, Brookline. The father is a teacher in Brookline High School.

Pilot Jewett is married and has two young children residing at Oakland, Cal.

Still another of the clipper's crew is a Massachusetts man. He is Second Officer G. M. Davis, who was born in South Lee in 1906. He was graduated from Massachusetts State College in 1931 and joined Pan-American four years later.

Other Clipper Ships Fly

SAN FRANCISCO, July 30 (INS).—Disappearance of the Hawaii Clipper did not deter a single passenger from boarding two other Pan-American clippers for their regular trans-Pacific hops.

The Philippine Clipper left Honolulu for Alameda, Cal., with nine passengers and a crew of nine; the China Clipper, with seven passengers and a crew of nine, left Alameda airport for Honolulu.

A last-minute passenger, Miss Leona Cooke of Washington, D. C., boarded the Philippine Clipper just before its takeoff.

Marine Killed In Plane Crash

WASHINGTON, July 30 (INS).—Sergeant Ernest Stuart Bowker, U. S. Marine Corps, was killed and U. S. Navy Aviation Cadet Gene Christian Aggerbeck of Northfield, Minn., barely escaped injury when their airplane crashed in flames near Varina, N. C.

The Navy Department announced that Aggerbeck was able to "bail out" and drop to earth in his parachute. Bowker, whose home is in Chicago, was prevented from jumping by the fire.

Would Grapple For Clipper

BALTIMORE, July 26 (AP).—Glenn L. Martin, builder of the missing Hawaiian Clipper, said today he hoped the army transport Meigs would grapple for fragments of the plane on the ocean bottom near where the ship found an area of floating oil.

"Unless fragments are recovered, Martin said, "there is no way of even conjecturing what might have caused the clipper to go down."

Giffin Accuser To Face Trial

NEW YORK, July 30 (INS).—Reserve Lieutenant James O. Smith, Jr., complaining witness in the court martial of his superior officer, Lieutenant-Colonel Stewart S. Giffin, today faces trial himself which may result in peremptory dismissal from the service.

Smith's story at the trial, which found Giffin guilty of two minor violations, tantamount to complete vindication, has resulted in charges being brought against Smith by his commanding officer, Colonel Charles G. H. Scher.

Scher charges that Smith brought the charges against Giffin in revenge for a business deal which had failed to go through.

Wife of Missing Co-Pilot Collapses

SANTA BARBARA, Cal., July 30 (INS).—Mrs. George Merrill Davis, wife of the co-pilot of the missing Hawaii Clipper, was in a state of collapse today. An expectant mother, her nerves broke under the strain of waiting for word of the fate of those aboard the craft.

At the home of her parents, Dr. and Mrs. Benjamin Takewell, it was stated that Mrs. Davis' condition was alarming.

Whole Town Gets July Power Free

FENN YAN, N. Y., July 30 (AP).—Consumers of electricity here found their July bills "paid in full" today, a dividend of a month's free current from the municipally owned and operated plant.

H. Allen Wegener, president, said the bills would total about $5600, divided among 2232 consumers.

Killed by Auto On Maine Highway

OGUNQUIT, Me., July 30 (AP).—Charles Baxter, 42, of Rochester, N. H., was killed today by an automobile as he returned to his car from a roadside eating place with members of his family.

PRESIDENT'S RED AND YELLOW VIEW:

'Angels' Paint Up New Home

HIGHLAND, N. Y., July 30 (INS)—Father Divine, who rose from sidewalk evangelist to across-the-river neighbor of President Roosevelt, today moved a vanguard of "Angels" into the newest, swankiest Promised Land.

Three hundred of his "Angels," mostly colored, were encoined this morning on the 500-acre estate of Howland Spencer, boyhood friend, manhood critic and distant kin by marriage of the President. Within 10 days, Spencer reported happily, 300 "Angels" will be swarming over the place. They'll repaint the buildings in Father Divine's own colors—brilliant yellow, with brilliant red trim.

THEY'LL SING AND SING

They'll turn living rooms into dormitories, lawns into cabbage fields and they'll sing night and day about the wonders of Father Divine.

All this the President can see from his library window, practically within shouting distance of the ex-Spencer place.

"It's going to be a wonderful experiment," said the millionaire anti-New Dealer. "That Father Divine's a great man. His philosophy is terrific. He's going to farm this place and show that his philosophy can triumph over the President's."

"Peace! Peace!" roared a handful of Angels who had heard Spencer mention their god in approving terms.

"It's wonderful! It's wonderful!" came shouts from all around.

SPENCER PLEASED

Spencer looked pleased. He went on to state that, emphatically, he wasn't turning his estate over to the Diviners in a malicious spirit. Not a bit.

He said the trouble was that he couldn't hire labor to work the place, even though he has a standing offer of 45 cents an hour.

"Relief has spoiled so many people," he said. "They'd rather get money for nothing than work for it. This Father Divine, though, has different ideas. He won't let a follower go on relief. They've all got to work."

Davenport Enters Race for Governor

Former State Senator William A. Davenport of Greenfield, a Republican, today entered the ranks of aspirants for Massachusetts governor.

Davenport announced he would run as an independent to give the people of the state an opportunity to express their views on the present system of taxation in Massachusetts.

Artists' Ball Costumes Gay

His name wasn't listed as serving on any committee. But one of the most energetic workers at the famous Beachcombers' Ball last night was the janitor of the building, who enforced the no-liquor rule at the town hall with puritan zeal.

Win prizes at annual artists' ball in Provincetown. Above is Jean Shay and, at right, Dorothea Nelson.

Despite his disapproval of prohibition swigging out of bottles, however, the fun waxed unrestrained as the evening wore on, and the hall emptied after each dance to the profit of the local grog shops.

"Paint costumes" were the vogue this year, with scores of animals and weird effects decorating the torsos of artists and summer colonists at what was one of the most daring, and certainly the most successful, artists' ball here in many years.

A blonde Lorelei in white fishnet, Mrs. Barbara Howes was voted the most beautiful woman in costume. Honors for the funniest costume went to Dr. Frederick Hammett, chief of the Lankenau Foundation for Cancer, who came as a protoplasm.

A daring modernistic idea won the prize for the most original costume, that of Diana Del Rio, a striking brunette of New York and Cuba, who said she was a "surrealistic mermaid."

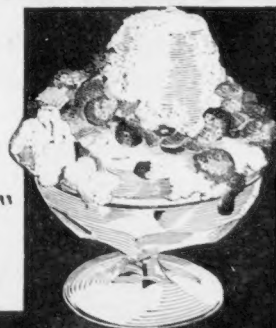

Over 1200 crowded into the Town Hall in costume, while as many more milled about in the street, peering at the colorful scene.

Many now-famous artists, who painted at Provincetown when they were unknown, and who attended the first ball 24 years ago, came back to make merry at the annual affair.

Morgan Dennis, famous for his Scottie dogs, and his brother, J. Wesley Dennis, who is almost equally noted for his horse portraits, came as trapeze artist and pirate, respectively.

"Jack" Beauchamp, nationally known artist, was chairman of the ball committee this year. His wife, Mary Ellen Vorse, appeared as a Degas ballet dancer.

For the first time, a woman served on the committee of judges this year. Entrants had complained that male judges always awarded the prizes to the fair sex, so the Baroness Amelée Cacace was drafted for the post.

"All over New England the motoring public knows how good my home-made ice cream tastes in generous cone, luscious sundae or soda"

Howard Johnson

28 DELICIOUS FLAVORS

VANILLA

STRAWBERRY

CHOCOLATE

COFFEE

BANANA

FROZEN PUDDING

FRUIT SALAD

CARAMEL

CHERRY

PISTACHIO

MAPLE NUT

PINEAPPLE

BUTTERSCOTCH

BUTTER CRUNCH

LEMON

PECAN BRITTLE

PEACH

MACAROON

COFFEE WALNUT

GINGER

PEPPERMINT

ORANGE PINEAPPLE

CARAMEL FUDGE

ORANGE SHERBET

LEMON SHERBET

PINEAPPLE SHERBET

STRAWBERRY SHERBET

RASPBERRY SHERBET

HOWARD JOHNSON'S ICE CREAM SHOPS AND RESTAURANTS

Reject Gas Rate Boost

The proposed rate increase of the Boston Consolidated Gas Co. stood rejected as illegal today by the Public Utilities Commission.

Father Held In Milk Theft

Continued from Outside Page

apartment on L street, was arrested in a Legion parkway store.

"I only wanted it for my wife and kids," he pleaded, police said.

Store clerks said he had offered them his last few pennies when they detected him but they held him until police arrived.

SERIOUS FLIGHT

Told of her husband's plight and the excuse he had given, his young wife bundled her family together and went to him at police headquarters.

First, however, she acknowledged that the family's plight was serious.

"This is terrible thing," she said, "I never thought Alfred would steal, even for us. If it's true, he must have done it because the children were so hungry. He was always such a good husband."

There was nothing to eat in the apartment, the wife said. She pointed to the larder. It was empty. Two-year-old Alfred, Jr., began to cry at the mention of food.

"My baby is sick and I haven't been feeling well lately," Mrs. Bartkus said. "He knew how we felt."

The apartment was dimly lit and unbearably hot from its proximity to the roof. The mother forgot about the food momentarily, to remember another tragedy.

"We're due to be evicted today," she said. "They've threatened to make us move several times before and now I'm afraid they'll go through with it. What will we do?"

Shirley Temple Ill; 2 Specialists Called

Continued from Outside Page

tors caused immediate cancellation of Shirley's intended Boston program.

First to receive the disquieting news were hundreds of Shirley's fans and well-wishers, gathered outside the hotel.

Many of them had been waiting since daylight to catch a glimpse of the winsome little Hollywood star.

BARELY TASTES FOOD

Shirley had risen just after 8 o'clock, had bathed and dressed as usual, and had sat down to her usual hearty breakfast of fruit, cereal, toast and milk.

She had no appetite, however, and barely tasted her food.

That convinced her mother that something was seriously wrong. Shirley had complained last night of feeling "awful tired" and "sort of hot and sticky."

But, like the good trouper she is, she was determined today to see the sights of historic Boston, as she had planned and give Boston its long-awaited chance to welcome her.

Mrs. Temple, with a mother's practiced eye, ruled otherwise.

DOCTORS RUSH TO CHILD

She insisted that a doctor be called.

Two came, as fast as speeding autos could bring them.

They were Drs. Harold L. Higgins and Dr. Joseph Lewis, both

"We find," the commission ruled, "that the schedule of rates filed by the Boston Consolidated Gas Co. on January 13, 1933, provides for the collection of a charge as, or in the nature of, a penalty and rule as a matter of law that said schedule is illegal."

The rates would have increased the price of gas to more than 90 per cent of the customers of the company, probably 250,000, almost all of whom are residential customers, according to the commission. The schedule would have meant an annual cost increase of approximately $1,175,000 to customers.

The ruling brought to an end 33 days of hearings before the commission.

Ast. Corporation Counsel Lewis H. Weinstein, who fought the increase for the city of Boston, argued that the rates were illegal, because the collection method proposed by the company imposed a penalty and was, therefore, in violation of the general laws.

Communities which would have been affected by the increase are Boston, Brookline, Chelsea, Milton, Newton, Quincy, Somerville, Waltham, Watertown, Wellesley and Weston.

In its decision, the committee pointed out that, after the statute against penalties for non-payment of bills became effective, gas companies revised their rates and substituted new rates which increased the rate but provided for a discount if bills were paid promptly.

"The statute," the commission stated, "as interpreted by these companies, forbade adding to the amount of the bill because of delayed payment, but permitted a deduction from the gross amount of the bill for prompt payment. The final result, however, was unchanged as to the customer who paid promptly."

In ordering cancellation of the schedule of rates filed by the company, the commission ruled that the rates in existence at the time of filing remain in effect.

Rivers Fall, Merrimack Danger Ended

As rivers in the metropolitan area gradually receded today to normal depth, Canal officials along the turbulent Merrimack predicted its waters would not reach flood height.

At the same time the federal weather bureau in its official forecast prophesied 24 hours of additional sunny skies with perhaps a few scattered thunderstorms in Massachusetts and adjoining territory.

The announcement of the Merrimack Canal officials allayed the fears of scores of industrial communities along its banks which had expected the recent cloudbursts in New Hampshire would swell the river to threatening volume.

Abatement of the Merrimack flood threat prevented the expected test of the new flood walls erected along its course, although officials expressed confidence they would hold back the swift current unless it overreached its high mark of 1936.

New White House Stamps on Sale

The government's newly-issued 4½-cent postage stamps, bearing an engraving of the White House, were put on sale today at the general postoffice in the Federal building.

RAILROADS' NET OFF

WASHINGTON, July 30 (INS)—Association of American Railroads estimated today that Class I railroads had net operating income in the first half of 1933 of $70,289,305 compared with $299,496,031 in the first half last year and $599,418,259 in the same period of 1932.

Stay There, Cowgirl!

THAT'S RIDING 'EM—Ruth Benson, California, star bronco buster, who appears in George A. Hamid's world's championship rodeo which opens at Suffolk Downs race track July 31. Show will run until August 14, inclusive.

Snake Ends 'Sit' In Monkey Cage

PHILADELPHIA, July 30 (AP)—Zoo keepers called on a king snake to solve a "sit-down" in the monkey house. They wanted to clean the cage—but the monkeys wouldn't leave. They put in the snake. Out scampered the monkeys.

Pair Face Court In Gaming Raid

Thomas Slattery, 42, and Albert Oude, 25, both of Brookline, and Jeremiah A. Curtin of Cambridge, today faced gaming charges after Brookline police raided an alleged race betting establishment on Washington street.

Five hundred betting slips and equipment were seized.

Switch to ELECTRIC COOKING

5 REASONS WHY

- ➡ Economical
- ➡ Cool
- ➡ Clean
- ➡ Fast
- ➡ Perfect Results

BOSTON EDISON COMPANY

O'BRIEN IN HOSPITAL

Mayor James M. O'Brien of Revere was in Whidden Memorial Hospital, Everett, today for treatment of a generally run-down condition.

THE TOP
IN WHISKEY

Wilson Distilling Co., New York, N. Y. Blended Whiskey. 50 Proof. 75% grain neutral spirits

Weeping Wife In Radio Vigil

LOS ANGELES, July 30 (INE)—Through the long watches of the night, refusing to eat, her features tense and drawn, Mrs. Ruth Parker, attractive brunette wife of Ivan H. Parker, Jr., steward aboard the missing Hawaii clipper, sat in front of a radio.

As she gazed with the radio dial she hoped for word that her husband, and the others aboard the giant craft, are still alive. "If," she wept, "it is the end for him—and I feel that it is—there is some happiness for me knowing he would glory in dying this way."

"He was like a little boy, so enthusiastic about his work and the future. And he brought so many gifts, the handiwork of natives along the clipper route."

ELSIE ROBINSON, writes from the woman's viewpoint, discusses every-day affairs and problems, regularly in the Boston American.

U. S. Senator HENRY CABOT LODGE

SENATOR LODGE

Tells how old age pensions can be increased
NOW

his own story explaining his plan for better Old Age Security appears exclusively

IN THE

GREEN MAGAZINE

WITH TOMORROW'S

SUNDAY
ADVERTISER

Largest Newspaper Circulation in New England

ALSO, IN TOMORROW'S

GREEN MAGAZINE

★ ANN MARSTERS TELLS THE STORY of Dogtown, the ghost city of Cape Ann.

★ LOCAL BEAUTY MAKES GOOD — Marion Flynn of Norwood, former winner of Miss Massachusetts title, now a successful New York model and star of the fashion news reels—the story of how she became glamorous.

★ Hollywood News, "Boston After Dark," another thrilling chapter of "Girl Hunt," Dashiell Hammett's new story; Mark Hellinger, Walter Winchell and other features.

Spoehrer Holds Job Despite Larceny Charge

Alfred Spoehrer, one-time Boston Braves baseball catcher, today held his job as superintendent in the East Boston office of the Unemployment Compensation Commission while UCC officials bailed his arrest on larceny charges as "politics and a fr. me-up."

Although the commission will make its own investigation of charges unearthed at a legislative hearing, Spoehrer will remain on the job, Executive Secretary Laurence H. Harrington stated today. Spoehrer pleaded not guilty to four counts charging larceny of $75 and will go on trial next Thursday in East Boston court.

His arrest came on warrants sworn out by East Boston police after testimony had been given at the special legislative hearing that restitution money of three persons had been taken by the former ball player.

Attorney John A. Brennan of the UCC legal department, who represented Spoehrer in court, said:

"The commission is completely convinced of Mr. Spoehrer's innocence of all charges against him. This is nothing but a political frame-up by those who wish to show the UCC is a political organization. This is an election year and this is an election plot."

Hughes and Aides Hop for Texas

CHICAGO, July 30 (AP)—Howard Hughes took off for Houston, Tex., in his round the world plane at 9:52 a. m. (Boston time) today, planning to fly nonstop to his Texas home town.

The young millionaire was accompanied by three of his world flight companions, Ed Lund, engineer; Richard R. Stoddard, radio operator, and Harry P. M. Connor, co-navigator, and his flight manager, Albert I. Lodwick.

Foresters Hold Outing Tomorrow

The fifth annual outing of the Associated Courts of the Massachusetts Catholic Order of Foresters, of the South Boston district, will be held tomorrow at Pine Island park in New Hampshire.

The committee in charge is composed from the membership of the following courts: St. Augustine, St. Patrick's, S. S. Peter and Paul, Notre Dame and St. Michael's.

Madge Born 'Too Soon,' She Says

(Boston Evening American Photo) MADGE EVANS

Madge Evans, who will make her stage debut in "Stage Door" at Dennis' Cape Playhouse Monday night, is a former child star who thinks she was born a decade too soon.

"Look at today's child stars," she suggests, "Deanna Durbin, Jackie Cooper, and Mickey Rooney are going through what is known in my day as the awkward age. It is anything but as we observe them in current movies. I'd call it the charming age."

"I fear I was born too soon. In my day, a child star's best years extended from six to 10 years. At 16, I found myself a has-been star. It was very disheartening but I think I've finally succeeded in making a comeback."

Miss Evans, who is rehearsing for "Stage Door" this week, made a flying visit to Providence the other night to be a guest of honor at the New England premiere of her latest starring picture, Republic's "Army Girl," at the Strand Theater. This picture is soon due on a Boston screen.

Bankers Are Hungry for Earnings

By MERRYLE STANLEY RUKESYER
(International News Service Economic Commentator)

NEW YORK, July 30—The irony of the banking situation is that, while the financiers are being benefited for unwillingness to lend freely, they are hungry for earning assets.

As a matter of fact, good commercial loans have become so scarce that the banks have virtually gone on the dole. This is because they are so largely dependent for earning power on interest received from financing the deficit of the federal government.

Banks with indebtedness or preferred stock liabilities to the Reconstruction Finance Corporation are being especially spoon-fed.

They not only derive a substantial portion of their earnings from providing the federal government with means of payment, but are also protected against loss, being permitted to pay off obligations to the R. F. C. with federal securities at par irrespective of current market price.

In other words, banks in that position in effect have what in technical Wall Street parlance would be called a "put," namely, the privilege of disposing of a security at a stipulated price.

In spanking timid bankers the other day, Jesse H. Jones, chairman of the Reconstruction Finance Corporation, pointed out in effect that banks since February had muffed business loans which were taken by the R. F. C.

Victor E. Smith, vice-president of the Omaha National Bank, in a message to this column, replied:

"Ancient comment relative to the failure of commercial banks to take proper care of the needs of their customers, what is the ratio of such loans approved by the R. F. C. to total bank loans?"

"If my arithmetic is correct, approved R. F. C. loans to date are $85,000,000, or approximately seven-tenths of one per cent of the aggregate of loans and discounts by Federal Reserve bank members, and a smaller percentage of the total loans and discounts of all banks."

"If we admit that all of these loans should have been made by commercial banks, the percentage of error would still seem to be within reason."

Friends of Mr. Jones say his repeated warnings to bankers to be more venturesome are based on fears that there will be an effort to set up competitive permanent lending agencies owned by the federal government.

Ford Sees New Era 75 Today, Visions Fuller Life

DETROIT, July 30 (AP)—Henry Ford celebrated his 75th birthday anniversary today.

It was one of the rare occasions upon which the noted industrialist has bothered about one of his own anniversaries. Usually it is "just another day at work" in his laboratory, or in quiet seclusion at his pretentious camp in the Huron Mountains on the south shore of Lake Superior.

Today, however, the city of Detroit, along with half a hundred other cities and villages throughout Michigan, sets aside the diamond anniversary as "Henry Ford Day," and Ford entered happily into the spirit of the occasion.

He gave over part of the morning and much of the evening to receive greetings from his fellow townspeople and friends of many years, some of whom had watched with awe—and not a little skepticism—as he developed an industrial empire from an experiment that began in a small brick barn in 1893.

PLANS EXPANSION

For the 75th anniversary finds him in excellent health and in the midst of a huge expansion program—a plant enlargement plan involving an outlay of upward of $5,000,000.

He made it clear that three quarters of a century of varying industrial, social and economic changes has not altered his conviction that "the world hasn't seen anything yet compared to what it will see." He said:

"When you remember that the automobile industry is not much older than 35 years you can imagine what will happen in the future," he said.

"I think business will go ahead with stronger strides in September."

"America knows but one direction—onward."

"LOOK TO THE LAND"

"Youth would be wise to look to the land. The land gives a double security. Every nation in strong and prosperous whose people have kept touch with the land. The time when industry will provide a larger market for the farmer is closer than most people think."

"Our country rises or falls with the position of the wage earner. The needs of the rich alone are not enough to support any basic industry."

"The largest and most constant market in the world is the wage earning American people. Their needs keep the wheels turning. Hence more production, more employment at high wages, are the supreme opportunity and obligation of American industrial management."

Alex Dowd, head of the Detroit Edison Company, Ford's employer in the early 90's when Ford was the company's chief engineer, will be toastmaster at the birthday banquet tonight.

Cutest Thing

The Boston Evening American will pay $1 each for every "Cutest Thing" Advertiser prints. Send address Cutest Thing Editor, Boston Evening American, Box 568, Boston, Mass.

Johnnie, aged six, attended church for the first time and after the collection whispered:

"Daddy, why did that man offer me that plate of money?"

S. M. CHASE, Newburyport.

BUSINESS

BOSTON EVENING AMERICAN

FINANCE

N. E. Trade
Recovers
Rain LossesBy HUGH E. BRADSHAW
Financial Editor

New England business, dealt a severe blow by the rains of last week, did better in the current period and conditions returned to nearly normal. Many lines of industry recorded small gains. Retail trade which had received a sharp setback recovered and textile mills picked up a little speed.

Agriculture was perhaps the hardest hit with losses to crops estimated at several million dollars. Woolen goods markets turned quite active and a fairly large business in raw wool was transacted in Boston. Yarns firmed and a good volume of orders for tops was reported.

Cotton goods were rather quiet but slight decreases in quotations were noted. Spinners shaded their prices as demand for yarns fell off.

ENTHUSIASM LACKING

The stock market is suffering from a lack of buying enthusiasm. After lifting sharply higher in anticipation of better times, stock prices are now doing the proverbial contrary thing by hesitating just as the hoped-for good news begins to trickle in. Potential buyers contend that it will be some months before actual business and trade figures furnish support for present prices and they are becoming increasingly selective in their operations.

For our part, we think a conservative attitude is more than warranted. All the elements which make for a decline are not present, perhaps, but prices can crack off without warning at this stage of a recovery. Stop loss orders should be kept on holdings in order to obtain automatic liquidation in the event of a sudden downturn. No new buying is recommended.

STATE ST. NOTEBOOK

Wheat is down so low that many traders are about ready to transfer their interest from stocks to the pit. . . . They reason that this is an election year and the administration is not going to be satisfied with prices close to a five-year low. . . . In any event the short side is feared by most of them. . . .

The Harvard Business Review is off the press. . . . And is loaded with discussions dealing with labor questions. . . . which have become such a vital consideration in all industrial operations. . . . It is well worth obtaining a copy. . . . National Steel is said to be operating at about 37 per cent of capacity and if it is going to get into the black it must do better than 50 per cent in coming months.

Sees Home Farm
Hope for Prosperity

AMHERST, July 30 (INS)—An appeal to preserve New England's home farm as an assurance of prosperity was issued here by Charles M. Gardner of Westfield, high priest of the National Grange, at the Grange Day program at Massachusetts State College.

"Only seven per cent of New England farms, as against 70 per cent in Mississippi, are operated by tenant farmers, which places this section at the very top of the list," Gardner said. "But unless our farm population can be made self-sustaining and self-respecting another story may be told in a few years."

WORKERS RECALLED

ALTOONA, Pa., July 30 (INS)—Pennsylvania R. R. is calling back to work on Monday the 10,000 men who began work on $5,000,000 worth of freight and electric locomotives. The road's shops have been closed down for seven months.

HOURLY

PLAY-BY-PLAY
IN THE
STOCK MARKET

Stock prices staged a slow, inactive return in today's abbreviated market. Steels and motors were in the van of the advance, which saw a number of leaders getting up from fractions to better than a point.

19-11—Quiet strength keyed the opening. A few leaders were at a definite standstill in very slow dealings. Westinghouse hopped up 1, but it was about the only stock that accomplished anything in the first quarter hour. Plus and minus signs were about equally divided. Coppers, steels and motors were ahead, while utilities and rails were a bit on the offside. Price changes for the most part were confined to fractions. Issues like Con. Edison, U. S. Rubber and Sears held to previous closings. It looked as though the market were going to revert to pre-rally Saturday form and turn in a dreary, uninteresting session. Transactions totaled — shares.

11-12—The tape hardly moved, but prices perked up slightly. Chrysler came forward for better than a point gain and American Smelting rallied a dollar. Leaders continued to come back slowly. There was no force to the climb, which was led by steels and motors.

POSTAL GROUP FORMED

NEW YORK, July 30 (INS)—A preferred stockholders' committee for Postal Telegraph & Cable Corp. has been organized. James A. Beha, Herbert P. Dammes, Frederick L. Rowman and Charles J. Williams, constitute the committee. The group stated that a plan of reorganization for the Postal Company will be filed shortly by a bondholders' committee which will "completely wipe out preferred stockholders."

Boston Stock
Favorites

NEW YORK PRICES

	Last Cl.
American Smelting	50 1/4
American T & T	14 1/4
Anacosta	25 1/4
Beth Steel	54 1/4
Chrysler	71 1/4
Cons Edison	28
Douglas	49 1/4
Gen Electric	41 1/4
Gen Motors	43 1/4
Kennecott	41 1/4
N. Y. Central	14 1/4
No American	21 1/4
Radio	6 1/4
Sears Roebuck	7 1/4
S O of N J	56 1/4
U S Rubber	44 1/4
Western Union	31 1/4
Westinghouse	102 1/4

J. P. MORGAN & CO.

ALBANY, July 30 (INS)—The state banking department today issued a new authorization to J. P. Morgan & Co. of Wall street, New York, to transact business as private bankers with a capital of $2,000,000. The new authorization was required due to the recent death of two partners, Edward T. Stonebury and S. Gilbert Parker. No successors were included in the new authorization.

LIVERPOOL CLOSED

LIVERPOOL, July 30 (INS)—The Liverpool cotton market will be closed today and Monday for the week-end bank holiday.

New Bar Head to Fight
For Civil Liberties

CLEVELAND, July 30 (AP)—Frank J. Hogan, student of Shakespeare and seker of rare editions, intends as president of the American Bar Association to provide defense counsel for the American citizen, "poor or rich," whose civil liberties are denied or threatened. The Washington trial lawyer—61 years old, medium of stature and precise—became head of the association yesterday at the conclusion of its 51st annual convention. He was unopposed as a candidate to succeed Arthur T. Vanderbilt of Newark, N. J.

After an inaugural speech in which he emphasized "the rights and immunities vouchsafed by the bill of rights," Hogan was authorized by the association's house of delegates to appoint a civil liberties committee.

The committee received its first task almost immediately, that of studying a resolution asking the association to condemn Mayor Frank Hague and other Jersey City authorities for what it termed reported deportation of "citizens asserting the right publicly to express opinions on public questions." Vanderbilt described his successor as "a lawyer's lawyer."

TAXES! TAXES! TAXES!

¶ "TAX" comes from the Latin, Tangere, which means to touch. The average man who applauds any tax that touches those of a higher income than himself fails to realize HE is also touched through UNSEEN TAXES.

¶ ONE dollar out of every FIVE that the average man earns goes for taxes directly or indirectly.

¶ On every loaf of bread he buys there are no less than 49 different hidden taxes.

¶ The next time he goes to the corner drug store, whether to buy ice cream or cough medicine, remember the proprietor pays 17 federal taxes, 27 state taxes, 34 local taxes, a total of 78 taxes.

¶ If he owns an automobile he pays four cents on every gallon of gasoline he uses.

¶ If he purchases one package of cigarettes daily he pays $21.90 in hidden taxes yearly.

¶ If he buys a new suit of clothes, he absorbs 12 different hidden taxes.

¶ If he pays $400 a year in rent he pays $160 in hidden taxes.

EVERYWHERE THE ALARM HAS BEEN SOUNDED AGAINST THE TREND TOWARD CONFISCATION BY TAXATION. TODAY, BUSINESS, INDUSTRY, EMPLOYMENT AND INDIVIDUAL INITIATIVE ARE THREATENED BY THIS TREND. CONFISCATORY TAXATION IS WIPING OUT BUSINESS PROFITS.

WHEN INDUSTRY SUFFERS FROM BURDEN. SOME TAXATION THE DEPRESSING RESULTS FALL DIRECTLY UPON THE COMMON PEOPLE.

IF TAXATION IS TO BE FOR THE COMMON WELFARE IT MUST NOT BE DESTRUCTIVE!

—Advertisement—

Mr. Bayard Tuckerman, Jr. & Mr. Arthur J. Anderson of the firm of

OBRION, RUSSELL & CO.
INSURANCE

108 Water Street, Boston - Lafayette 5700

take pleasure in announcing that they have admitted to partnership

Robert J. Dunkle, Jr.
Robert T. Forrest
Julius F. Haller

OPEN YOUR OWN
CHECKING ACCOUNT with
AN INITIAL DEPOSIT
AS LITTLE AS . . . $

5¢ our only charge for each check drawn and non deposited.
CHECKBOOKS FREE

NO MINIMUM BALANCE
REQUIRED AT ANY TIME

MALDEN TRUST COMPANY
MALDEN, MASS.

Member Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation

CheckMaster

WHERE TO SAVE

SMALL ACCOUNTS ARE ALWAYS WELCOME

A small amount added weekly from your pay envelope will make it grow. INTEREST BEGINS ON DATES LISTED.

Massachusetts Savings Bank	Aug. 1st
Boston Penny Savings Bank	Aug. 10th
Boston Savings Bank	Aug. 10th
Union Savings Bank	Aug. 10th
Boston Five Cents Savings Bank	Aug. 15th
East Boston Savings Bank	Aug. 15th
Dorchester Savings Bank	Aug. 15th
Shut Savings Bank	Aug. 15th
Bank for Savings in Roxbury	Aug. 15th
Wellesley Savings Bank	Aug. 15th

—SABURBAN—
Quincy Savings Bank Aug. 1st
Brookline Savings Bank Aug. 1st
Newton Savings Bank Aug. 1st
East Cambridge Savings Bank Aug. 1st

—NATIONAL BANKS—
Deposits in national banks will draw interest from said dates.

First National Bank (all)	Aug. 1st
---------------------------	----------

—CO-OPERATIVE BANKS—
Merchants Co. Op. Bk. New Haven on file
—FEDERAL SAVINGS & LOAN ASSN.—
Middlesex Fed. Sav. & L. on Aug. 1st

Governor Gets Bid

CONVENTION GUEST—Governor Hurley receiving invitation to attend National Convention of American Legion in Los Angeles this fall from Evelyn Keys, "Miss American Legion." Standing, in rear, are, left to right, Vic McKenzie, convention director, Coleman C. Curran, national adjutant of American Legion and Charles E. Rochester, New York legionnaire.

(Boston Evening American Photo)

Love? No Time, Says Film Star

Most difficult chore required for her forthcoming picture, "Say It In French," is learning how to smoke. Blonde and lovely Evelyn Keyes, Cecil B. DeMille's new Paramount discovery, lone girl star of Paramount's imminent release, "Sons of the Legion," confessed this on her arrival here today.

Alighting from an American Airlines plane from New York, where she was enthusiastically welcomed by Legionnaires as their recently chosen "Miss American Legion," Miss Keyes revealed that life in Hollywood can be very hectic—if you are young and ambitious.

NO, NOT IN LOVE

"Am I in love?" she repeated the question. "Why, of course not. Mr. DeMille, who discovered me, gave love for us until we have arrived. And I think he is right."

"I am working so hard to achieve success in the movies that I have no time for romance or dates."

"My working day often begins as early as 5 a. m. and when we have finished for the day I am too tired for anything but dinner and sleep. Dates are out for me."

"Like everybody else, when I was living in Atlanta, Ga., and leading a very social life, I used to think that the movie people must enjoy a most exciting life of parties and romances and drinking.

DESIGN FOR LIVING

"Since I am a part of Hollywood's design for living, I have come to know that the real workers have little or no time for social life."

"To retain their star rating, they must work constantly and tirelessly. I realized early that if I want to get anywhere in the movies I must concentrate upon work to the exclusion of partying."

"Confidentially, it's no great sacrifice, although I wouldn't want Mr. DeMille to know it."

"Between you and me, I don't smoke, drink, pet, play bridge or go for intelligence tests, and so I don't miss Hollywood's so-called social life in the least."

Lafs

1 The Boston Evening American will pay $1 each for every "Laf" printed. Address "Laf" Editor, Boston Evening American, Box 809, Boston, Mass.

Prisoner: "Judge, must I be tried by that jury with all those women on it?"

Judge: "Certainly, they all have been sworn to duty."

Prisoner: "Then I plead guilty. It's no use trying to fool a pack of strange women when I can't even deceive my own wife."

ELMER WHITTAKER, Taunton.

TODAY'S RADIO PROGRAMS—SATURDAY, JULY 30

590 K—WEEI	900 K—WBZ	1230 K—WNAZ	1410 K—WAAB	1500 K—WWEX
4:00 Charles Paul, Organ	Club Matinee	Stamp Collectors	Bees-Cardinals	Rockingham Races
4:15 Stan Wynn, Songs	Club Matinee	Men of West	Bees-Cardinals	Rockingham Races
4:30 Saratoga Race	Club Matinee	From Berlin	Bees-Cardinals	Today's Winners
4:45 Saratoga Race	Club Matinee	From Berlin	Bees-Cardinals	Today's Winners
5:00 Boston Hour	Trio Time	Top Hatters Orch.	Racing Matinee	Today's Winners
5:15 Boston Hour	Trio Time	Top Hatters Orch.	Racing Matinee	Today's Winners
5:30 American Dances	Paul Sabia Orch.	Kiddoodlers	Racing Matinee	Today's Winners
5:45 Rhythm Revue	Paul Sabia Orch.	Junior Birdmen	Book Theatre	Today's Winners
6:00 News	News	News	Dinner Concert	News
6:15 Songs For You	Leo Martin Orch.	Fred Hoey Roundup	Dinner Concert	Italian Review
6:30 Hands Across Table	Sport Slants	Readers' Club	Dinner Concert	Today's Winners
6:45 Tango Time	Blue Barron Orch.	Scheme Drama	Results and Scores	Nutcracker Quartet
7:00 Syncopation Piece	Message of Israel	Counterfeit Money	News	Bob Hardy Orch.
7:15 Syncopation Piece	Message of Israel	R. Humber Orch.	Musical Album	Terry O'Toole
7:30 Columbia Workshop	Question Bee	Jack Stevens, Sport	Musical Album	Terry O'Toole
7:45 Columbia Workshop	Question Bee	Larry Chilton Orch.	Vincent Price Orch.	Travel Talk
8:00 Sat. Night Swing	Jacques Renard Orch.	Kindergarten	Symphonic Music	Jungle Jim
8:15 Sat. Night Swing	Jacques Renard Orch.	Kindergarten	Symphonic Music	Swing At It
8:30 Johnnie Presents	Original Radio Play	Al Donahue Orch.	Dell Concert	Classical Hour
8:45 Johnnie Presents	Original Radio Play	Barry McKinley, Song	Dell Concert	Classical Hour
9:00 Professor Quiz	Bare Dance	America Swings	Dell Concert	Dance Orchestra
9:15 Professor Quiz	Bare Dance	America Swings	Dell Concert	Dance Orchestra
9:30 Ford Birthday	Bare Dance	America Swings	Dell Concert	Musical Moods
9:45 Ford Birthday	Bare Dance	America Swings	Dell Concert	Musical Moods
10:00 Your Hit Parade	Fond Recollections	The Crickets	Dell Concert	Earl Meyer Orch.
10:15 Your Hit Parade	Fond Recollections	The Crickets	Dell Concert	Ivan Franks Orch.
10:30 Your Hit Parade	Fond Recollections	Concert in Rhythm	Bunny Bergrain Orch.	Bill Hayes' Orch.
10:45 Del Casino	Fond Recollections	Concert in Rhythm	Bunny Bergrain Orch.	News
11:00 News	News	News	Jimmy Grier Orch.	Bob Hardy Orch.
11:15 Grand Basic Orch.	Al Donahue Orch.	Weather Service	Madrigals Orch.	Sweet Swing
11:30 Kay Kyser Orch.	Horace Heidt Orch.	Opera "Pagliacci"	Bill Carlson Orch.	Wildwood Orch.
11:45 Kay Kyser Orch.	Horace Heidt Orch.	Opera "Pagliacci"	Bill Carlson Orch.	Wildwood Orch.

Serial Bares 'Inside' of Rackets

Racket-smashing is here!

Warmly approved by federal authorities in Boston, and officially endorsed by the Commercial Crime Commission, the thrilling new serial "Racket Busters" begins in Monday's Boston Evening American.

The story is a graphic preview of the Cosmopolitan picture of the same name to be shown in Boston sometime in August.

The Commercial Crime Commission is a national unit of corporations fighting organized racket by publicizing them and explaining to the public how they work, and how they are eliminated.

While the city in the plot of "Racket Busters" unfolds is obviously New York, the story of the film treats a condition common to virtually every large American city. It is not so much the story of what any one man has done to fight racketeers, but how an aroused citizenry can put an end to this civic cancer.

Injured in Fall Fighting Fire

LEOMINSTER, July 26—Arthur J. Bicknell, Jr., 25-year-old trawler employee, was recovering today at Burbank Hospital, Fitchburg, from injuries suffered in a 30-foot fall while extinguishing a small theater fire.

While an audience of 300 waited for the performance to begin, Bicknell climbed to the rafters with a fire extinguisher to douse a fire caused by a short circuit. His plunge was partly broken by an usher who jumped to aid him.

Don't Miss Chance For Half-Fare Trip

Be a COUPON-CLIPPER!

A snip of the shears will be WORTH $1 to you tomorrow.

In the BOSTON SUNDAY ADVERTISER, you'll find a free coupon, entitling you to a half-fare ticket on the S. S. Steel Fair's Monday's cruise to scenic Provincetown and return.

Regular fare is $2.

With the FREE COUPON from the Boston Sunday Advertiser, you

Louella Parsons Crosses Country for Interview

(Special to Boston Evening American)

NEW YORK, July 30—Traveling 3000 miles to interview her old friend, Darryl F. Zanuck, motion picture in the coast-to-coast Alexander's Ragtime Band broadcast, Wednesday, Louella O. Parsons, motion picture editor for International News Service was in New York today.

Miss Parsons came on the invitation of Irving Berlin. She will be in town ten days combining work with vacation.

"I'm going to sneak in all the Broadway shows I can," announced the writer who has made Hollywood stars glow as far east as New York, and will continue her column while she is here.

Not that she is tired of motion pictures and the stars she writes about. She confessed she likes to have them with her even when vacationing. In fact her husband, Dr. Harry Martin, fulfilled her wish by purchasing a ranch in Fernandez Valley bounded on all sides by motion picture stars.

"It will be a delightful place to relax," said Miss Parsons. "We're right near Barbara Stanwyck, the Zeppo Marx's, Bob Taylor and the Joe Von Sternbergs."

Outshining in chic the stars she writes about, Miss Parsons stepped from the Twentieth Century in a slate-blue tailored suit, enhanced by Burgundy accessories. A Burgundy orchid completed the ensemble.

Miss Parsons brought the news that quite a few of the Hollywood stars are turning their thoughts to New York.

Betty Furness, for one, is back on Broadway, and plans to stay there, Miss Parsons said.

"And I wouldn't be a bit surprised to see Joan Bennett return to the stage," she added.

Winners Get Contest $5 Monday

Winners in the recent "Scene in the Movies" contest, with $5000 in $21 cash prizes, will be announced in the Boston American, Monday. Order your copy now!

Thousands of New England movie-goers are anxiously awaiting the results of the distribution of the $5000 cash prize money.

Final decisions were made by three outstanding judges: Major Patrick F. Healey, department of Public Safety, State House, Boston; John B. Carroll, manager M. & F. Theaters, Paramount Theater, Boston, well known showman; Prof. William G. Hoffman, educator and public speaking authority of Boston University.

Get your copy of the Boston American, Monday morning. Be early!

NOT TOO LATE—

To Profit By SUNDAY ADVERTISER
WANT ADS

—in tomorrow's big Sunday edition of New England's greatest newspaper. It's the big marketplace in which to

SELL YOUR ARTICLES or SERVICES

—to rent that apartment, sell a house, a motor car, furniture—telephone your ad, early today, to—

LIBerty 4000

SUNDAY ADVERTISER
WANT ADS

New! WOODCOCK HOTEL
Entertainment Every Evening
KNOTTY PINE ROOM
3 FLOOR SHOWS SATURDAY!
Charles Weiss—Alco-Liquor
OPEN ALL SUMMER
1160 WASHINGTON ST., BOSTON

TOTEM POLE
SUN. SHOW 8 P.M. MON. 10 P.M.
Tonight—Thru Next Thursday
KEN HARRIS and His CALIFORNIANS
Returning by Popular Demand

"REDHEADS ARE LUCKY"

by Vera Brown

'Mike'; Handsome Plan Their Wedding

CHAPTER 35

There was an ear-splitting explosion. It seemed to come from somewhere else in the apartment . . .

Then Wish was there at Iris' side; Mr. Regan, Sr. and Handsome rushed straight to Mike.

There was also a strange man who banged the door shut, commanding sternly: "Be quiet!"

He turned to Mike. "When anybody comes to that door, you tell them that Wish dropped his gun accidentally and it went off."

There was the sound of excited voices outside. The strange man took Iris into Mike's bedroom. When there was a knock on the door, Mike answered it.

Her voice was convincing: "I'm so sorry, Mrs. Wells. I'm afraid it damaged the ceiling a little. We're terribly sorry. Yes, it was an accident." She closed the door.

Wish came over to Mike and patted her hand. "If Iris had hurt you, I'd never have forgiven myself."

"How did she get a gun, Wish?" Handsome demanded.

"I have no idea," Wish said. "I thought I had everything under control, but I was wrong."

"I don't know," Mike said. "I was just sitting there, and I heard the explosion. I didn't know what it was."

"I don't know," Mike said. "I was just sitting there, and I heard the explosion. I didn't know what it was."

"I don't know," Mike said. "I was just sitting there, and I heard the explosion. I didn't know what it was."

"I don't know," Mike said. "I was just sitting there, and I heard the explosion. I didn't know what it was."

"I don't know," Mike said. "I was just sitting there, and I heard the explosion. I didn't know what it was."

"I don't know," Mike said. "I was just sitting there, and I heard the explosion. I didn't know what it was."

"I don't know," Mike said. "I was just sitting there, and I heard the explosion. I didn't know what it was."

"I don't know," Mike said. "I was just sitting there, and I heard the explosion. I didn't know what it was."

"I don't know," Mike said. "I was just sitting there, and I heard the explosion. I didn't know what it was."

"I don't know," Mike said. "I was just sitting there, and I heard the explosion. I didn't know what it was."

"I don't know," Mike said. "I was just sitting there, and I heard the explosion. I didn't know what it was."

"I don't know," Mike said. "I was just sitting there, and I heard the explosion. I didn't know what it was."

"I don't know," Mike said. "I was just sitting there, and I heard the explosion. I didn't know what it was."

"I don't know," Mike said. "I was just sitting there, and I heard the explosion. I didn't know what it was."

"I don't know," Mike said. "I was just sitting there, and I heard the explosion. I didn't know what it was."

"I don't know," Mike said. "I was just sitting there, and I heard the explosion. I didn't know what it was."

"I don't know," Mike said. "I was just sitting there, and I heard the explosion. I didn't know what it was."

"I don't know," Mike said. "I was just sitting there, and I heard the explosion. I didn't know what it was."

"I don't know," Mike said. "I was just sitting there, and I heard the explosion. I didn't know what it was."

"I don't know," Mike said. "I was just sitting there, and I heard the explosion. I didn't know what it was."

"I don't know," Mike said. "I was just sitting there, and I heard the explosion. I didn't know what it was."

"I don't know," Mike said. "I was just sitting there, and I heard the explosion. I didn't know what it was."

"I don't know," Mike said. "I was just sitting there, and I heard the explosion. I didn't know what it was."

"I don't know," Mike said. "I was just sitting there, and I heard the explosion. I didn't know what it was."

"I don't know," Mike said. "I was just sitting there, and I heard the explosion. I didn't know what it was."

"I don't know," Mike said. "I was just sitting there, and I heard the explosion. I didn't know what it was."

"I don't know," Mike said. "I was just sitting there, and I heard the explosion. I didn't know what it was."

"I don't know," Mike said. "I was just sitting there, and I heard the explosion. I didn't know what it was."

"I don't know," Mike said. "I was just sitting there, and I heard the explosion. I didn't know what it was."

"I don't know," Mike said. "I was just sitting there, and I heard the explosion. I didn't know what it was."

"I don't know," Mike said. "I was just sitting there, and I heard the explosion. I didn't know what it was."

"I don't know," Mike said. "I was just sitting there, and I heard the explosion. I didn't know what it was."

VICTORIOUS LOVE unites "Mike" and Handsome. "You're my luck, Skipper," he said. "You always have been and always will be. I'll make you happy. I promise."

"I don't know," Mike said. "I was just sitting there, and I heard the explosion. I didn't know what it was."

"I don't know," Mike said. "I was just sitting there, and I heard the explosion. I didn't know what it was."

"I don't know," Mike said. "I was just sitting there, and I heard the explosion. I didn't know what it was."

"I don't know," Mike said. "I was just sitting there, and I heard the explosion. I didn't know what it was."

"I don't know," Mike said. "I was just sitting there, and I heard the explosion. I didn't know what it was."

"I don't know," Mike said. "I was just sitting there, and I heard the explosion. I didn't know what it was."

"I don't know," Mike said. "I was just sitting there, and I heard the explosion. I didn't know what it was."

"I don't know," Mike said. "I was just sitting there, and I heard the explosion. I didn't know what it was."

"I don't know," Mike said. "I was just sitting there, and I heard the explosion. I didn't know what it was."

"I don't know," Mike said. "I was just sitting there, and I heard the explosion. I didn't know what it was."

"I don't know," Mike said. "I was just sitting there, and I heard the explosion. I didn't know what it was."

"I don't know," Mike said. "I was just sitting there, and I heard the explosion. I didn't know what it was."

"I don't know," Mike said. "I was just sitting there, and I heard the explosion. I didn't know what it was."

"I don't know," Mike said. "I was just sitting there, and I heard the explosion. I didn't know what it was."

"I don't know," Mike said. "I was just sitting there, and I heard the explosion. I didn't know what it was."

"I don't know," Mike said. "I was just sitting there, and I heard the explosion. I didn't know what it was."

"I don't know," Mike said. "I was just sitting there, and I heard the explosion. I didn't know what it was."

"I don't know," Mike said. "I was just sitting there, and I heard the explosion. I didn't know what it was."

"I don't know," Mike said. "I was just sitting there, and I heard the explosion. I didn't know what it was."

"I don't know," Mike said. "I was just sitting there, and I heard the explosion. I didn't know what it was."

"I don't know," Mike said. "I was just sitting there, and I heard the explosion. I didn't know what it was."

"I don't know," Mike said. "I was just sitting there, and I heard the explosion. I didn't know what it was."

"I don't know," Mike said. "I was just sitting there, and I heard the explosion. I didn't know what it was."

"I don't know," Mike said. "I was just sitting there, and I heard the explosion. I didn't know what it was."

"I don't know," Mike said. "I was just sitting there, and I heard the explosion. I didn't know what it was."

"I don't know," Mike said. "I was just sitting there, and I heard the explosion. I didn't know what it was."

"I don't know," Mike said. "I was just sitting there, and I heard the explosion. I didn't know what it was."

"I don't know," Mike said. "I was just sitting there, and I heard the explosion. I didn't know what it was."

"I don't know," Mike said. "I was just sitting there, and I heard the explosion. I didn't know what it was."

"I don't know," Mike said. "I was just sitting there, and I heard the explosion. I didn't know what it was."

"I don't know," Mike said. "I was just sitting there, and I heard the explosion. I didn't know what it was."

"I don't know," Mike said. "I was just sitting there, and I heard the explosion. I didn't know what it was."

"I don't know," Mike said. "I was just sitting there, and I heard the explosion. I didn't know what it was."

It would be a good idea to have a good idea of what you are doing. The writer of this book is a professional writer and has written many books on the subject of handwriting.

The writer of this book is a professional writer and has written many books on the subject of handwriting.

The writer of this book is a professional writer and has written many books on the subject of handwriting.

The writer of this book is a professional writer and has written many books on the subject of handwriting.

The writer of this book is a professional writer and has written many books on the subject of handwriting.

The writer of this book is a professional writer and has written many books on the subject of handwriting.

The writer of this book is a professional writer and has written many books on the subject of handwriting.

The writer of this book is a professional writer and has written many books on the subject of handwriting.

The writer of this book is a professional writer and has written many books on the subject of handwriting.

The writer of this book is a professional writer and has written many books on the subject of handwriting.

The writer of this book is a professional writer and has written many books on the subject of handwriting.

The writer of this book is a professional writer and has written many books on the subject of handwriting.

The writer of this book is a professional writer and has written many books on the subject of handwriting.

The writer of this book is a professional writer and has written many books on the subject of handwriting.

The writer of this book is a professional writer and has written many books on the subject of handwriting.

The writer of this book is a professional writer and has written many books on the subject of handwriting.

The writer of this book is a professional writer and has written many books on the subject of handwriting.

The writer of this book is a professional writer and has written many books on the subject of handwriting.

The writer of this book is a professional writer and has written many books on the subject of handwriting.

The writer of this book is a professional writer and has written many books on the subject of handwriting.

The writer of this book is a professional writer and has written many books on the subject of handwriting.

The writer of this book is a professional writer and has written many books on the subject of handwriting.

The writer of this book is a professional writer and has written many books on the subject of handwriting.

The writer of this book is a professional writer and has written many books on the subject of handwriting.

The writer of this book is a professional writer and has written many books on the subject of handwriting.

The writer of this book is a professional writer and has written many books on the subject of handwriting.

The writer of this book is a professional writer and has written many books on the subject of handwriting.

The writer of this book is a professional writer and has written many books on the subject of handwriting.

The writer of this book is a professional writer and has written many books on the subject of handwriting.

The writer of this book is a professional writer and has written many books on the subject of handwriting.

The writer of this book is a professional writer and has written many books on the subject of handwriting.

The writer of this book is a professional writer and has written many books on the subject of handwriting.

The writer of this book is a professional writer and has written many books on the subject of handwriting.

Your Handwriting

Talent Alone Uncertain

By HELEN PAYNE

Many fine qualities are often seen in the handwriting of young people, the making of a writer or the thoughtfulness of an inventor.

But only too often these qualifications are coupled with a decided lack of will power, courage and determination or what it takes to put these ideas into concrete form. Many a career is never started because of lack of concentration.

Many samples of writing reveal the "wish" to do something but other characteristics in the writing contradict—such as indifference and restlessness. They want Rome to be built in a day. The two following samples of writing reveal INDOLENCE and IMPATIENCE in one. MENTAL ACTIVITY and IMPATIENCE in the other.

To the soldier
I want you to read this specimen

In the first sample we see little "fish-hook" terminals. This shows a tenacity and selfish determination to have own way in all things. You cannot expect much "get-up" from this writer.

MENTAL INERTIA
The writing presents a vivid picture of a careless, lazy, indifferent and thoughtless person. The rounded writing tells so plainly of the mind inertia and physical laziness, with selfishness and unattractiveness in the unsympathetic and penetration, underwrite script give observation and a certain lack that is logical and intuitive. The unevenness in the height of the letters denotes some ill health, as does the labored style of the writing; but good economy without avarice is expressed.

Why not be honest with your self? See yourself as YOU ARE and through your handwriting OBTAIN AN HONEST, UNPREJUDICED CHARACTERGRAPH of yourself?

Miss Payne teaches frankly and sincerely without fear or favor. It will be personal, privately mailed to you.

Angular writing shows activity you.

CLIP THIS COUPON SEND ONLY 10¢ IN COIN

HELEN PAYNE, HANDWRITING PSYCHOLOGIST, BOSTON EVENING AMERICAN, BOSTON, MASS.

Send me your personal analysis of my handwriting.

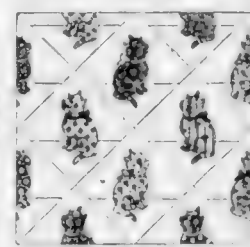

NAME _____

ADDRESS _____

CITY _____ STATE _____

A large self-addressed stamped envelope (your own writing), must be enclosed.

Calico Cat Makes Colorful Quilt

Calico Cat is just one single patch, and proof of it! What a colorful quilt it makes in orange. You can applique paws on a pillow top too!

Use a contrasting color for the bows.

Pattern 1284 contains accurate pattern pieces, diagram of blocks; instructions for cutting, sewing and finishing; yardage chart, diagram of quilt.

Send 10 cents in stamps or coin (coin preferred) for this pattern to Boston Evening American, Needlecraft Dept., 22 Eighth Avenue, New York, N. Y. Write plainly pattern number, your name and address.

Lemons Make Nice Rinse for Hair

Lemons are always available. They make a nice rinse for the hair, chasing away any particles of soap scum that may be lurking on the silky shafts. They clean nail caves in a jiffy. If the comb is a saw, take the juice of half a lemon in a little water before breakfast.

Shir

F. D. R.

can look across the Hudson river now and see (arrow) where his new neighbors, Father Devereux's Negro outists will live. The new estate is a 100-acre property.

Interview

at last! See what he has to say about the new estate.

Jeanne Carles

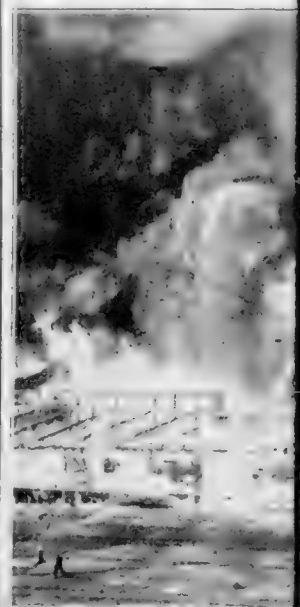

Eddie McGrath

Beachcombers Ball brought scores of gaily clad merry-makers to Provincetown last night. Miss Carles of Philadelphia came as a beachcomber, Harvard's Eddie McGrath as a cubalero, Miss Del Rio of Cuba as a mermaid.

Dianna Del Rio

$5,000,000 in burned to ground. Fortune in

ley Sees and Conquers

—Doubtless, the young girl and woman must feel very "excited" as they become the next to many a young people here, for they are the only two in the room who are not the "newcomers" and who have been here since the first of the year.

Flames—Vivid view of fire that menaced entire Vancouver, B. C., waterfront. Flames shot 100 feet high. Big railroad pier was freight went up in smoke.

INTERNATIONAL NEWS SERVICE PHOTO

Sunny skies greeted Shirley Temple upon her arrival in Boston—and everything seemed set for a great time for the young starlet and her fans. But excitement was too much and now Shirley is being kept in bed for a couple days until she recovers.

BOSTON AMERICAN

BOSTON, SATURDAY, JULY 30, 1933

The Slip Sheet

Nelson Harding

The Editor Says:—Nelson Harding's cartoon, aptly titled "The Slip Sheet," concerns all Americans, especially those Americans whose sons and daughters will return to school a month hence.

Parents have no duty more important than that of keeping both eyes on the educational institutions their children attend. As taxpayers, fathers and mothers have every right in the world to insist that men and women employed to instruct Massachusetts youth be TEACHERS, not reactionary social reformers.

HENRY FORD arrives today at his 75th milestone on the road of life, and to him go the good wishes of the nation and world.

An interesting combination of simplicity and shrewdness, Mr. Ford is both a blunder and a poet at heart.

He has created a vast industrial empire because he had the strength of character to trust himself when everybody doubted and called him a fanatic at forty.

And yet he has found time for sentiment for the preservation and restoration of fine old things, from the country schoolhouse where McGuffey's Readers first were used to the Colonial village.

A measure of Mr. Ford's importance is that he pays wages of nearly $900,000 every working day to more than 120,000 American workers.

But equally as important in the measure of his worth as a citizen are his faith in the ideals and principles that have given us all that we as a people enjoy and his constant effort, by word and deed, to remind America that gold and machinery do not happen to be everything in life.

SHIRLEY TEMPLE, visiting Boston and New England, is enjoying a rare childhood opportunity, as she will undoubtedly realize in later years.

The famous little actress will see the historic shrines of American liberty and freedom, known to millions of other little girls and boys in the South and West only through words and pictures.

As she grows older and begins the serious study of history, she will recall Faneuil Hall, Lexington, Concord and other shrines of our democracy.

And, needless to say, the memory of these sites will be with her long after the less important tributes and ovations will have been forgotten.

It is to be hoped that curious spectators do not block Shirley's travels and force a suspension of the tour planned for her.

THOUSANDS MOURN for Major William McGinnis, dead at 48, following a long illness at the Soldiers' Home in Chelsea.

Twelve years ago Major McGinnis was state commander of the American Legion. And despite sickness which kept his name on a hospital danger list for many weeks, he carried on his responsible work, doing much for the "buddies" who had chosen him their leader.

The Political Parade

By GEORGE ROTHWELL BROWN

WASHINGTON, July 30

THE TEXAS primaries have given what may prove to be a knockout blow to one of the most unique political groups in the recent history of Congress.

The defeat of Maury Maverick and a couple of his colleagues was a smash to the "center," for, contrary to the custom in European parliaments, the radical bloc in the House of Representatives was not seated in the benches on the "left" but sprawled themselves by habit along the Democratic side of the middle aisle.

Hailed 33 times by their enthusiastic friends as numbering 100 in reality there were only about 50 of them but 44 shock troops of the New Deal they sometimes rummaged around their less alert brethren.

Led by the unbranded Texas steer—some would have referred to him as a searing salt—this little group of what Dan Mahony would have called "serious thinkers" and which others might have termed "Delirious Tinkers," the radical bloc owed their strength largely to their smartness in adopting that instrumentality of parliamentary despotism which went out of fashion in the House as the progressive movement of 30 years ago in its more unfashioned conservatives of both major parties.

THE CAUCUS, of the conference, by which party members meet as a party, thresh out their differences, and then abide in their vote in the House, the majority opinion (on the Congressional record).

BERT SNELL tried to build up his thin remnant of Republicans a time or two during the past couple of years, but couldn't make the G. O. P. distinction as hatched. Many of them, however, after New Deal deals and votes with the enemy, that's one reason why Bert quit Congress.

In Woodrow Wilson's day the Democrats used the binding caucus. The Underwood Tariff Act was first decided upon in caucus, the party was bound, and then the New Revenue Bill was put through the House without the aid of the gag rule. But there is no real party discipline in the House today.

WHEN the chunky spunky Maverick rallied the lads of radical ideas along the center benches, and became their leader, it was his custom to assemble them in frequent meetings around one of the few big round tables in the House restaurant.

These meetings became so largely attended that at the last session they were held in the House Office Building. They were serious. They amounted practically to a revival of the caucus system in the House.

As is invariably the case with progressives, they adopt for themselves the very political institutions whose use by their foes they so bitterly condemn.

SO MAVERICK'S little band of zealots, through the strength of organization, became a power in the House.

Maury was the vital force. And a likeable fellow he is, too. You will probably hear before long that the New Deal is bringing him to Washington for an up-town job.

Then he can help keep the band of the faithful pepped up, and on the center aisle job.

The Brighter Side

Statue Too Large; No Room for Canary

By DAMON RUNYON

(Copyright, 1934, by King Features Syndicate, Inc. All rights reserved.)

THESE United States of America are right liberally peppered with examples of sculptural frightfulness in the form of statues and other memorials in enduring bronze and stone to departed heroes and distinguished citizens and of historic events and yet we agree with Mr. Bob Moses, Park Commissioner of New York City.

Mr. Bob Moses, a great man at his job, was going to floodlight a statue of Hendrik Hudson atop a 100-foot column near the Hudson parkway in New York and Deputy Mayor Henry H. Curran wrote him to forget the idea saying the statue is bad enough as it is without touching it up in any way.

Mr. Curran also said he did not think much of a lot of other New York statues including that of General Sherman on the house corner Sixth at 50th Street and Fifth Avenue and Mr. Bob Moses.

In reply to Mr. Curran and him that New York town has "the most awful statues in the world," to which he thinks Mr. Curran is packed on some of the better ones. Then he says:

"One memorial statue that I would like to see quite different from those in the city and when you get the feeling that you are not worth anything, the competition is too much for you."

This is where we agree with Mr. Moses. There are statues and monuments in this country that are undoubtedly a positive stimulus to greatness for our folks who look back the artist's eye see the memorials for what they stand for more than anything else, and like them for that reason.

However awful from the artistic standpoint a memorial may be, it serves to remind the living of some great human exploit or of some historic character that they ought to know about, and we think that is about all you can expect of a memorial whether it is in the form of a statue or something else.

But every year scattered over the United States back down the years when cities and states have designed a veritable panoply for raising monuments to their heroes of one kind and another or to commemorate big events. Generally after the appropriations for the memorials were made, they could not agree on who should do the designing and the sculpturing and sometimes through politics it wound up in the hands of shoozmakers.

We doubt that Americans generally care a whoop about the artistic phases of a statue just for art's sake and to prove it we might cite the adventures of a piece of statuary by the great St. Gaudens. It was the statue of Diana that used to roost airy on the tower of the old Madison Square Garden.

When the garden was torn down they had a tough time giving Diana away though she was, and is a bit of a relic and should have been a prize for any city though we must admit her garb was more what you might call diaphanous or less. As we remember a university that she was given to returned the lady and she finally found a home in a park in Philadelphia.

We would have liked Diana for our own, not that we have any great appreciation of art in that form, but because of her historic associations and the fact that she always looked so cool. However, she was about ten times too big for our home.

There would have been no room left for the canary.

Damon Runyon

One Word Led to Another

By ARTHUR "BUGS" BAER

THE TRAILERITES have gone through all of the 48 States and are now headed for American Samoa. Now we can throw our tin cans out the back door and watch them float. Samoa consists of the Islands of Tutuila, Aunu'u, Ofu, Oloaoga and Tau. We got Samoa in 1889 by treaty with Great Britain and Germany, who didn't own it but who were feeling generous with other people's property. The natives are a high type of Polynesian.

THE GROUP was discovered by Jake Roggeveen in 1722 and visited by Captain Edwards of the Pandora in 1791. There were originally 37 of these beautiful coral islands but the natives carved them up into necklaces for Sadie Thompsons.

THE PRINCIPAL industry of the coral archipelago is carving coral jewelry. How long can that last? It was in the Samoan that Robert Louis Stevenson described the famous hurricane of 1889. The American warships Trenton and Vandalia were wrecked on the coral reefs, the German cruisers Olga and Eber were shattered, the American cruiser Nipic was blown out of the water and only the English cruiser Calliope managed to get up enough steam to escape from Apia harbor. That was the year of the big wind and accept no substitutes.

THERE IS NO use telling Samoa about breezes since that hurricane. It blew the feathers off hens and put wings on clams. It blew for six straight days and then started sneezing. That was 50 years ago and today there are still sailors living in trees in Samoa.

BOYS! GIRLS! NOW YOU CAN HAVE A SINGING LARIAT

WITH ONLY 2 DAILY COUPONS OR ONE SUNDAY COUPON

Singing Lariat Coupon No. 2

NAME

ADDRESS

CITY

STATE

ALL YOU HAVE TO DO IS CLIP TODAY'S AND MONDAY'S FREE GIFT COUPON TO OBTAIN YOUR SINGING LARIAT.

Clip today's and Monday's free Singing Lariat coupons and mail them, together with 5 cents, to Boston American, P. O. Box 866, 5 Winthrop Square, Boston, Mass. You can also obtain your Singing Lariat by mailing the free coupon from the Boston Sunday Advertiser together with 5 cents. Print your name and address clearly. The Singing Lariat may also be obtained at any of the Coupon Redemption Stations listed here.

IF YOU WISH

You may take your Coupons to any redemption station listed here with 5c, and get your SINGING LARIAT.

Downtown: Boston American, 5 Winthrop Sq., Boston

BACE BAT
Bacon News Co., 216 Huntington Ave.
Jewelry Drug, 115 Jersey St.

NORTH END
Charter Pharmacy, 296 Hanover St.

SOUTH END
M. Andros's Book Store, 266 Tremont St.
Rob's Cigar Store, 915 Washington St.

ROSEBURY
Rosenfeld Bros., 681 Washington Ave.
Charles's Book, 511 Shawmut Ave.
William's Book, 752 Shawmut Ave.
Edward Book, 317 Columbus Ave.

WASH. END
Lewiston Variety Store, 98 Everett St.
Brake's Variety Store, 97 Charles St.

ALBANY
Garb Drug Co., 1571 Commonwealth Ave.

ARLINGTON
Fleming Drug, Arlington Center.
H. Brown's Variety Store, 135 Main Ave.

BELMONT
Beach Street Bks., 198 Beach St.

BRIGHTON
Fleming Drug, 239 Washington St.
Gibbs Bros., 615 Washington St.
Crown Fruit, 1955 Washington St.
O'Connell's Drug, 217 Western Ave.

BROOKLINE
W. O. Jones, 275 Washington St.
McDonald's Variety, 221 Harvard St.

CAMBRIDGE
P. L. Brooks Co., 11 North St.
Carter's Book, 200 Cambridge St.
Foley's Cigar Store, 208 Hampshire St.
Harrison News Co., 229 Mass. Ave.
Brookline Book, 275 Brookline St.
Nara's Variety Store, 121 Huron Ave.

CHARLESTOWN
Hoffman's Drug, City Sq.
Green's Variety, 215 Market Hill

CHESTER
Mama's Cigar & Variety Store, 333 Broadway.
Macomber Pharmacy, 359 Washington Ave.

CROFTONVILLE
Conway's Book Co., 444 Lincoln Ave.

DORCHESTER
Horn Hill News Co., 1094 Dorchester Ave.
Foley's Cigar Store, 263 Adams St.
Adams's Variety Store, 110 Adams St.
Harrison Bros., 156 Bowdoin St.
Harrison Bros., 2505 Dorchester Ave.
Gailor's Variety Store, 306 Glenway St.
Hill's Variety Store, 792 Washington St.
Fleming's Variety Store, 296 Hanover St.

EAST BOSTON
Lane's Variety Store, 313 Meridian St.
Gibbs's Variety Store, 118 Meridian St.
Hillman's Variety Store, 1000 Revere St.
Orliff's Variety Store, 1000 Revere St.

Shirley Here; All Hearts Open To Her Smile

Continued from Page 3

"How old are you, Shirley?"
"I was nine last April."
"And what do you think of Boston?"

BUT SHE WOULDN'T TELL!

Shirley's brown eyes showed no prize.

"How do I know?" she said.

"I haven't seen much of it."

Then she smiled, radiant.

"I just got here."

The reporter persisted.

"But you told in New York what you thought of the city and the big buildings. Hasley you formed ANI's impression of Boston?"

Her chubby hand went to her chin in a slightly nervous gesture. Then she tilted her head and said emphatically:

"Yes, I HAVE—but won't tell YOU."

She was asked then if she had learned anything about Boston in her history lessons and she said:

"I know the poem about Paul Revere, and I know about baked beans and the Boston tea party. I want to see where they dumped the tea."

The reporter, by this time, was the slaves of Miss Shirley Temple. She was completely adored, and she had an answer to a diplomatic answer to every question.

"Who's your favorite movie star, Shirley?"

"Oh," said the diplomat, "I like them all."

"Do you like spinach?"

She smiled.

"Yes," she said, "I REALLY do. But it's not my FAVORITE food."

Did she know what she was going to do in Boston?

WILL BE "DISGUISED"

She supposed she would be "disguised," but she didn't know just where. Neither did Mrs. Temple.

"Anyway," said Shirley's mother, "we try to keep our whereabouts a secret, so that Shirley won't be mobbed at each historical spot we visit."

From Boston the Temples will drive to Quebec, then to Chicago and back to Illinois. Shirley will be at her debut September 1 to begin her next picture, "The Little Princess."

If you are hoping to catch a glimpse of Shirley during her Boston night, you'll find it difficult to identify her by that mass of golden curls. For this it probably be tied up in a bandana which serves two purposes.

"The bandana," said Mrs. Temple, "keeps Shirley's neck cool, and it's also a fairly good disguise."

"Lord Jeff" Heads Bowdoin Bill

"Lord Jeff," British marine service drama, co-starring Freddie Bartholomew and Mickey Rooney, comes to the Bowdoin Square screen tomorrow for a four-day run. Skillfully directed by Sam Wood, "Lord Jeff" is a vitally interesting story with Herbert Mundin, Peter Lasker and Walter Tetley, Emma Dunn and Terry Kilburn in featured supporting roles.

On the same bill will be "Woman Against Woman" with Herbert Marshall, Virginia Bruce, Mary Astor, Marjorie Rambeau and Zeffie Tilbury.

HARRIS BAND AT TOTEM

Ken Harris and his Californians are at Totem Pole Ballroom for a one-week engagement, with Doris Allen as featured singer. The Harris Orchestra appeared at the Totem Pole Ballroom five weeks ago.

"HOLIDAY" AT BIJOU

At the Bijou Theater tomorrow and Monday will be "Holiday," with Katharine Hepburn and Cary Grant. Also "Hunted Men" with Lloyd Nolan and "Thanks for the Memory," cartoon short.

Seznick Buys Story For Carole Lombard

By LOUELLA O. PARSONS

Motion Picture Editor International News Service

(Copyright, 1933)

NEW YORK, July 30—Carole Lombard's press-agent days are over but she learned something of what it means for a news snooter to snoop for news.

Just as I arrived in New York today, their came word from my girl friend in Hollywood telling me that David Seznick had bought a story for her—an about—(3)—be published—

"Second Motion picture," by Lauren Curry.

Both David and Carole read it in the gallery.

It will follow "Made for Each Other," which she is now shooting.

The story, briefly, concerns a college professor who is appointed president of the University just as he becomes involved in a scandal. And Carole's sympathetic role, as his wife, continues her on the road to more serious dramas and away from the hectic comedies.

Joan Crawford and Franchot Tone, having the time of their lives together at Phil Seznick's with the Norman Waters, had Hollywood snafus ear and resulted in a dozen flashes to me in New York. Talked to Joan long last time and, while she's adamant about being quoted on anything about Franchot, take my word for it they're still good friends and will continue to see each other in spite of the break.

In the meantime, Joan's spent over the delays in getting "Shining Hour" into production.

"I've never wanted to get back to work so much in my life," she told me.

The chief trouble is in casting the two male leads. Melvyn Douglas is a still top choice for the husband and how M-G-M would like to get Tyrone Power for the equally important role of the younger brother.

Hal Wallis has sent Ronald Colman the script of "We Are Not Alone" surprising many of us who believed Leslie Howard was set for the role of the doctor who becomes involved in a murder after befriending an unfortunate girl.

Ronnie still has a few days more shooting on "If I Were King," and has promised to read the script of the James Hilton novel just as soon as he completes his Paramount picture. Underneath the treatment is excellent, and nothing would surprise me less than for Colman to accept the Warner commitment to co-star with Miriam Hopkins.

J. Cheever Cowdin, back from England with that million dollar bankroll for Universal Pictures, will use some of the cash for "Newsboys Home." This yarn will be based on the famous Brace Memorial home in New York where newsboys are sheltered and fed for as little as $2 a week. The alumni of this organization, known as the "Newsboys' Home," are Al Smith, Eddie Foy, and Joe Huntphries. Producer Ken Goldsmith is eager to get Charlie Duncan who played "Spit" in one of the "Dead End" companies, and as many of the "Dead End" kids as possible to head the "Newsboys' Home" picture stars in October.

CHATTER FROM HOLLYWOOD

The one point Douglas Corrigan wanted straightened out before he'd even consider turning over for "Dawn Patrol" was, "Are there any love scenes?"

The studio quickly wired back there wasn't a single clench with a glamour girl, on account of there being an all-male cast. All of which augurs well for the chances of the girl-dodging aviation hero, who, started the world when he flew the Atlantic by "mistake," according.

IN THE LETTER BOX: Samuel L. Phillips heads a list of 12 signatures all very indignant because "M-G-M must be trying to put the skirts under Fredric March." His name wasn't out in lights when Lord Jeff played loudly.

We think it only fair to explain that the exhibitors, not the studio, decide which players are to be electric lighted when a picture plays a certain house. F. M. I. offers the interesting suggestion that too much personal publicity about their private lives is the main trouble with the careers of Joan Crawford, Garbo, Marlene Dietrich and many others. He writes: "We read as much about them as off-screen personalities. It is difficult to believe their screen characters."

Snapshots of Hollywood

Virginia Faine had her bags all packed for New York and then changed her mind, which may mean she and George Raft are making up. George had little Joanne, Virginia's daughter, to lunch at the studio.

Madeline Carroll cashing shell in New York early in August, the "Letter of Introduction" preview hanging out plenty of Hollywood wonders. . . . Ken Murray, who is more serious about Shirley Ross than he pretends, brought his favorite girl friend, Edgar Bergen with Katherine Wilson, W. C. Fields, Deanna Durbin with her mother and Matty Fox, and the Adolphe Menjou were among those who showed up at the Brown Derby afterward. . . . Now that Lupe and Johnny Weissmuller are separated, Johnny's mother has arrived in Hollywood to make her home with him. . . . Lyle Talbot looking very blue in a night club after his wife left for the East following their "trial separation." . . . Douglas Fairbanks suffering from a severe sunburn after falling asleep on location. . . . Max Baer making the office boys at M-G-M happy by sending them new baseball uniforms. . . . Joe Penner taking to his bed for a few days with makeup poisoning. That's all for today. See you Monday!

Movie Talk

HEATH—Love Finds Andy Hardy? 12:30, 4, 7:15, 10:15. "Storm in a Teacup" 11:30, 12:30, 2:30, 4:30, 6:30.

METROPOLITAN—"Smoking Dr. Cigarettes" 10, 11:35, 3:35, 6:35, 9:35. "Passport to Hell" 11:40, 2:40, 5:40, 8:40.

REX—"The Girl Who Sings" 10:15, 11:45, 1:15, 2:45, 4:15, 5:45, 7:15, 8:45, 10:15.

ROXY—"The Girl Who Sings" 10:15, 11:45, 1:15, 2:45, 4:15, 5:45, 7:15, 8:45, 10:15.

THEATRE—"The Girl Who Sings" 10:15, 11:45, 1:15, 2:45, 4:15, 5:45, 7:15, 8:45, 10:15.

THEATRE—"The Girl Who Sings" 10:15, 11:45, 1:15, 2:45, 4:15, 5:45, 7:15, 8:45, 10:15.

THEATRE—"The Girl Who Sings" 10:15, 11:45, 1:15, 2:45, 4:15, 5:45, 7:15, 8:45, 10:15.

THEATRE—"The Girl Who Sings" 10:15, 11:45, 1:15, 2:45, 4:15, 5:45, 7:15, 8:45, 10:15.

THEATRE—"The Girl Who Sings" 10:15, 11:45, 1:15, 2:45, 4:15, 5:45, 7:15, 8:45, 10:15.

THEATRE—"The Girl Who Sings" 10:15, 11:45, 1:15, 2:45, 4:15, 5:45, 7:15, 8:45, 10:15.

THEATRE—"The Girl Who Sings" 10:15, 11:45, 1:15, 2:45, 4:15, 5:45, 7:15, 8:45, 10:15.

THEATRE—"The Girl Who Sings" 10:15, 11:45, 1:15, 2:45, 4:15, 5:45, 7:15, 8:45, 10:15.

THEATRE—"The Girl Who Sings" 10:15, 11:45, 1:15, 2:45, 4:15, 5:45, 7:15, 8:45, 10:15.

THEATRE—"The Girl Who Sings" 10:15, 11:45, 1:15, 2:45, 4:15, 5:45, 7:15, 8:45, 10:15.

THEATRE—"The Girl Who Sings" 10:15, 11:45, 1:15, 2:45, 4:15, 5:45, 7:15, 8:45, 10:15.

THEATRE—"The Girl Who Sings" 10:15, 11:45, 1:15, 2:45, 4:15, 5:45, 7:15, 8:45, 10:15.

THEATRE—"The Girl Who Sings" 10:15, 11:45, 1:15, 2:45, 4:15, 5:45, 7:15, 8:45, 10:15.

THEATRE—"The Girl Who Sings" 10:15, 11:45, 1:15, 2:45, 4:15, 5:45, 7:15, 8:45, 10:15.

THEATRE—"The Girl Who Sings" 10:15, 11:45, 1:15, 2:45, 4:15, 5:45, 7:15, 8:45, 10:15.

THEATRE—"The Girl Who Sings" 10:15, 11:45, 1:15, 2:45, 4:15, 5:45, 7:15, 8:45, 10:15.

THEATRE—"The Girl Who Sings" 10:15, 11:45, 1:15, 2:45, 4:15, 5:45, 7:15, 8:45, 10:15.

THEATRE—"The Girl Who Sings" 10:15, 11:45, 1:15, 2:45, 4:15, 5:45, 7:15, 8:45, 10:15.

THEATRE—"The Girl Who Sings" 10:15, 11:45, 1:15, 2:45, 4:15, 5:45, 7:15, 8:45, 10:15.

THEATRE—"The Girl Who Sings" 10:15, 11:45, 1:15, 2:45, 4:15, 5:45, 7:15, 8:45, 10:15.

THEATRE—"The Girl Who Sings" 10:15, 11:45, 1:15, 2:45, 4:15, 5:45, 7:15, 8:45, 10:15.

THEATRE—"The Girl Who Sings" 10:15, 11:45, 1:15, 2:45, 4:15, 5:45, 7:15, 8:45, 10:15.

THEATRE—"The Girl Who Sings" 10:15, 11:45, 1:15, 2:45, 4:15, 5:45, 7:15, 8:45, 10:15.

THEATRE—"The Girl Who Sings" 10:15, 11:45, 1:15, 2:45, 4:15, 5:45, 7:15, 8:45, 10:15.

THEATRE—"The Girl Who Sings" 10:15, 11:45, 1:15, 2:45, 4:15, 5:45, 7:15, 8:45, 10:15.

THEATRE—"The Girl Who Sings" 10:15, 11:45, 1:15, 2:45, 4:15, 5:45, 7:15, 8:45, 10:15.

THEATRE—"The Girl Who Sings" 10:15, 11:45, 1:15, 2:45, 4:15, 5:45, 7:15, 8:45, 10:15.

THEATRE—"The Girl Who Sings" 10:15, 11:45, 1:15, 2:45, 4:15, 5:45, 7:15, 8:45, 10:15.

THEATRE—"The Girl Who Sings" 10:15, 11:45, 1:15, 2:45, 4:15, 5:45, 7:15, 8:45, 10:15.

THEATRE—"The Girl Who Sings" 10:15, 11:45, 1:15, 2:45, 4:15, 5:45, 7:15, 8:45, 10:15.

THEATRE—"The Girl Who Sings" 10:15, 11:45, 1:15, 2:45, 4:15, 5:45, 7:15, 8:45, 10:15.

THEATRE—"The Girl Who Sings" 10:15, 11:45, 1:15, 2:45, 4:15, 5:45, 7:15, 8:45, 10:15.

THEATRE—"The Girl Who Sings" 10:15, 11:45, 1:15, 2:45, 4:15, 5:45, 7:15, 8:45, 10:15.

THEATRE—"The Girl Who Sings" 10:15, 11:45, 1:15, 2:45, 4:15, 5:45, 7:15, 8:45, 10:15.

THEATRE—"The Girl Who Sings" 10:15, 11:45, 1:15, 2:45, 4:15, 5:45, 7:15, 8:45, 10:15.

THEATRE—"The Girl Who Sings" 10:15, 11:45, 1:15, 2:45, 4:15, 5:45, 7:15, 8:45, 10:15.

THEATRE—"The Girl Who Sings" 10:15, 11:45, 1:15, 2:45, 4:15, 5:45, 7:15, 8:45, 10:15.

THEATRE—"The Girl Who Sings" 10:15, 11:45, 1:15, 2:45, 4:15, 5:45, 7:15, 8:45, 10:15.

THEATRE—"The Girl Who Sings" 10:15, 11:45, 1:15, 2:45, 4:15, 5:45, 7:15, 8:45, 10:15.

THEATRE—"The Girl Who Sings" 10:15, 11:45, 1:15, 2:45, 4:15, 5:45, 7:15, 8:45, 10:15.

THEATRE—"The Girl Who Sings" 10:15, 11:45, 1:15, 2:45, 4:15, 5:45, 7:15, 8:45, 10:15.

THEATRE—"The Girl Who Sings" 10:15, 11:45, 1:15, 2:45, 4:15, 5:45, 7:15, 8:45, 10:15.

THEATRE—"The Girl Who Sings" 10:15, 11:45, 1:15, 2:45, 4:15, 5:45, 7:15, 8:45, 10:15.

THEATRE—"The Girl Who Sings" 10:15, 11:45, 1:15, 2:45, 4:15, 5:45, 7:15, 8:45, 10:15.

THEATRE—"The Girl Who Sings" 10:15, 11:45, 1:15, 2:45, 4:15, 5:45, 7:15, 8:45, 10:15.

THEATRE—"The Girl Who Sings" 10:15, 11:45, 1:15, 2:45, 4:15, 5:45, 7:15, 8:45, 10:15.

THEATRE—"The Girl Who Sings" 10:15, 11:45, 1:15, 2:45, 4:15, 5:45, 7:15, 8:45, 10:15.

THEATRE—"The Girl Who Sings" 10:15, 11:45, 1:15, 2:45, 4:15, 5:45, 7:15, 8:45, 10:15.

THEATRE—"The Girl Who Sings" 10:15, 11:45, 1:15, 2:45, 4:15, 5:45, 7:15, 8:45, 10:15.

THEATRE—"The Girl Who Sings" 10:15, 11:45, 1:15, 2:45, 4:15, 5:45, 7:15, 8:45, 10:15.

LITTLE ANNIE ROONEY

SECRET AGENT X-9

The Cobbler Has a Day Dream

By Brandon Walsh

The G-Man Is Initiated Into Spydrom

By Robert Storm

BRINGING UP FATHER

Better Be Careful, Jiggs!

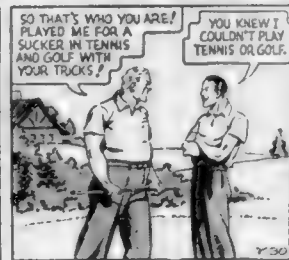

By George McManus

MANDRAKE THE MAGICIAN

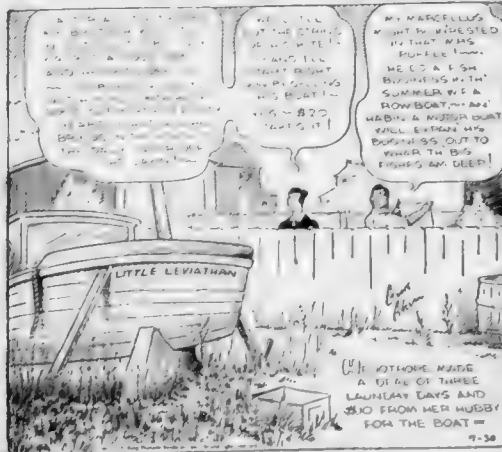

"So That's Who You Are!"

By Lee Falk and Phil Davis

ROOM AND BOARD

By Gene Ahern

ADVERTISE YOUR WANT ADS IN BOSTON EVENING AMERICAN

TODAY'S

HORIZONTAL

- 1—lofty mountain
- 4—fat
- 8—free from something obvious
- 12—monkey
- 13—work
- 14—hall
- 15—king
- 17—game of marbles
- 18—egg-shaped
- 19—pose for a portrait
- 21—poker play
- 22—place
- 23—member of the Aryan race
- 24—mother
- 25—Egyptian sun god
- 26—gold around
- 34—tune in
- 35—strange
- 38—mud
- 40—body of water
- 41—indefinite article
- 42—symbol for tellurium
- 43—essential being

CROSSWORD PUZZLE

- 44—worn
- 47—let it stand
- 48—Chinese pagoda
- 51—mass of masonry
- 53—beverage
- 55—monarch
- 60—title of respect
- 41—short cape
- 63—contend
- 65—female of the domestic fowl
- 64—Italian poet
- 65—cloth measure
- 66—title of respect
- 1—Peer Gynt's mother
- 2—loose
- 3—edge of lace
- 4—muddle
- 5—dips out
- 6—decline
- 7—French coin
- 8—makes a mistake
- 9—snake
- 10—yellow
- 11—mixture appearing on plants
- 16—present
- 19—picks
- 21—sufficient
- 22—nostrils
- 24—spirit lamps
- 27—beverage
- 28—winged
- 29—male servant
- 31—bronze in Roman antiquity
- 33—Greek letter
- 36—hybrid
- 37—female of the ruff
- 38—under-mind
- 44—Babylonian deity
- 46—kind of what
- 48—crustaceans
- 50—footnote
- 53—arrow
- 55—free
- 56—privatize
- 58—Anglo-Saxon money of account
- 57—convert into leather
- 59—name
- 60—winged fish

By Eugene Sheffer

- 11—mixture appearing on plants
- 16—present
- 19—picks
- 21—sufficient
- 22—nostrils
- 24—spirit lamps
- 27—beverage
- 28—winged
- 29—male servant
- 31—bronze in Roman antiquity
- 33—Greek letter
- 36—hybrid
- 37—female of the ruff
- 38—under-mind
- 44—Babylonian deity
- 46—kind of what
- 48—crustaceans
- 50—footnote
- 53—arrow
- 55—free
- 56—privatize
- 58—Anglo-Saxon money of account
- 57—convert into leather
- 59—name
- 60—winged fish

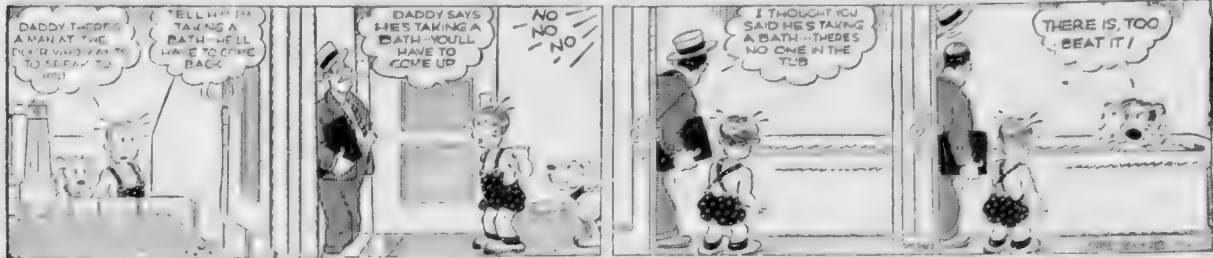

YESTERDAY'S ANSWERS:

AWAKE	ESS	ROB
SAPID	TOE	AVE
STALE	CLEANER
ERN	AHA	GANG
ART	AVENGE
SI	ORAD	UNTIE
ENAMEL	BITING
AGLET	ELLS	DA
LEGLET	MID
EASE	LID	PAC
SPATTED	OLVAN
NAG	ODE	ELITE
ERATED	RESET

BLONDIE

The Privacy of a Goldfish

By Chic Young

POPEYE

It Must Be His Head

By E. C. Segar

SKIPPIE

It Is the Correct Diagnosis

By Percy L. Crosby

JOE PALOOKA

"There Was Only One Boat"

By Ham Fisher

HENRY

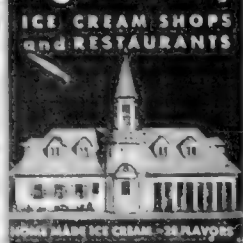

Wait Till Mother Sees This!

By Carl Anderson

MILLIE AND BILL ~ The Weather Prophet ~ by Simple Simon

HOWARD JOHNSON'S

MR. BOSTON

Greyhound Displays Billy Direct Also Brilliant Form Fast at Agawam

By JACK CONWAY

AGAWAM, July 30—The Greyhound is all horse and is happiest when the pace is fast and a driving finish is required to bring him down past the wire in front.

I got my first peek at the Greyhound as he won both heats in the free-for-all trot, "The American," at the Grand Circuit races here.

They Greyhound likes to go out front, and race the field into the ground, but Driver Pakin wouldn't let him do so. In the first heat Pakin didn't permit the Greyhound to make his move until he hit the stretch. He then permitted the grey ghost to step, and he streaked past his rivals to win the mile trot in 2:02 3/4.

Rosalin gave the Greyhound some competition in the second heat. It was a driving finish through the stretch with the Greyhound pulling away by a full length as he raced towards the wire. The time for the heat was 2:05 1/4.

There wasn't any betting on this race. It was so certain that the Greyhound would win that the track didn't want to have minus pools. In Massachusetts the lowest payoff permitted is $2.20. Imagine some big gambler tossing in a chunk of $10,000 on Greyhound to show. The wonder horse could fall down, and still finish within the money.

The purse for "The American" was $3160 and most of this went to the Hotel Baker Stables who own the Greyhound. E. J. Baker of St. Charles, Illinois, owns this racing stable. Baker married the niece of "Bet You a Million" Gates, and has always been keenly interested in racing.

How would the Greyhound, with his rig, go against War Admiral?

Trotting men will tell you that the Greyhound would prove War Admiral is just another horse. The running horse, however, would probably go to the post a favorite.

Billy Direct Also Shows Speed

BILLY DIRECT won "The Pittsfield" free-for-all pace. Billy Direct has only lost one race during the past three years, and looks like one of the finest pacers to ever grace a track.

Sergeant Eddie Mack, who has been doing the publicity for Agawam Park, suggested a match race between Greyhound and Billy Direct. The Sergeant is very much up on his trotting and pacing terms.

The Sergeant introduced me to Pop Rugg, 87 years of age, from Lowell. Pop told me he still drives trotters and pacers.

"I have been driving for 72 years," said Pop. Sergeant Mack said that was much longer than he expected to live. "These trotting horse men live to be 100 years old," declared Mack. "If one wishes to live to be that old, I would suggest that he buy himself a trotter and go to the races."

Alma Sheppard to Drive Today

1 MET 12-YEAR-OLD Miss Alma Sheppard in the clubhouse in the company of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Sheppard of Hanover, Pa., owners of the Hanover shoe factories. The youthful Miss Sheppard will drive Dean Hanover, champion trotter, in a special exhibition today.

"I have been driving horses ever since I could remember," said Miss Sheppard. "Of course I am not afraid."

The Hanover Stables here are a show place. There is special equipment for each horse, and enough help to conduct a race track. Sheppard is a millionaire and harness horses are his hobby.

Harriman Arrives in Private Plane

E. ROLAND HARRIMAN, railroad millionaire, arrived here in his private plane to see the races. Harriman always gives the purses to his trainer, and he turns over his winning mutual tickets to his airplane pilot.

Most of the owners of the trotters and pacers in Grand Circuit racing are millionaires, and they are interested in racing for the sake of the sport itself. These owners have done much to increase the standing of racing in this section of the country.

Dan Gurnett and Paul Bowser, active in the affairs of Agawam Park, declare the Grand Circuit meeting will probably show a slight profit. Bowser is acting as General Manager of the Grand Circuit meeting, and has his own racing stable here.

Robert T. Hamilton of Springfield is State racing steward at the Grand Circuit meeting. The harness horses, like the runners, come under the direction of the Massachusetts Racing Commission, and are supervised with the same care the Commission shows in its regulation of the running horse game.

The Grand Circuit meeting will continue through next Saturday, and is expected to attract large crowds.

The Greyhound runs again next Tuesday, and thousands of trotting horse enthusiasts will come here to see the wonder horse in action.

Mr. Boston

Abbott Golf Ace

Carries Bay State Hopes

Maine Youth N. E. Sensation

Faces Merritt In Semifinals

N. E. Amateur Golf

SEMI-FINAL ROUND
Edmund L. Abbott, Auburn, Me., vs. M. P. Merritt, Salem, C. C.
Richard Chapman, Greenwich, Ct., vs. Wilfred Crossley, Norfolk, G. C.

By BILL GRIMES

For the first time in the annals of New England golf amateur championships a native son of the State of Maine, Edmund L. Abbott, represents the Massachusetts Golf Association. Abbott has finished the round with a score of 136 at Portland, and is the leader in the 1933 and 1934 tournaments. Abbott was born in Portland, Maine, and was a member of the Portland Golf Club. He was a member of the Maine Golf Association for many years.

Abbott is a member of the Maine Country Club, and is a member of the Portland Golf Club. He is a member of the Maine Golf Association, and is a member of the Portland Golf Club.

Abbott is a member of the Maine Country Club, and is a member of the Portland Golf Club. He is a member of the Maine Golf Association, and is a member of the Portland Golf Club.

Years ago, Merritt was a member of the Portland Golf Club, and is a member of the Maine Golf Association.

Abbott has made a name for himself this week at Brookline. Due to the fact that he had never won a first round match in a tournament, he was a favorite to win.

Abbott is a member of the Maine Country Club, and is a member of the Portland Golf Club. He is a member of the Maine Golf Association, and is a member of the Portland Golf Club.

Abbott is a member of the Maine Country Club, and is a member of the Portland Golf Club. He is a member of the Maine Golf Association, and is a member of the Portland Golf Club.

Abbott is a member of the Maine Country Club, and is a member of the Portland Golf Club. He is a member of the Maine Golf Association, and is a member of the Portland Golf Club.

Abbott is a member of the Maine Country Club, and is a member of the Portland Golf Club. He is a member of the Maine Golf Association, and is a member of the Portland Golf Club.

Abbott is a member of the Maine Country Club, and is a member of the Portland Golf Club. He is a member of the Maine Golf Association, and is a member of the Portland Golf Club.

Abbott is a member of the Maine Country Club, and is a member of the Portland Golf Club. He is a member of the Maine Golf Association, and is a member of the Portland Golf Club.

Abbott is a member of the Maine Country Club, and is a member of the Portland Golf Club. He is a member of the Maine Golf Association, and is a member of the Portland Golf Club.

Abbott is a member of the Maine Country Club, and is a member of the Portland Golf Club. He is a member of the Maine Golf Association, and is a member of the Portland Golf Club.

Abbott is a member of the Maine Country Club, and is a member of the Portland Golf Club. He is a member of the Maine Golf Association, and is a member of the Portland Golf Club.

Abbott is a member of the Maine Country Club, and is a member of the Portland Golf Club. He is a member of the Maine Golf Association, and is a member of the Portland Golf Club.

Abbott is a member of the Maine Country Club, and is a member of the Portland Golf Club. He is a member of the Maine Golf Association, and is a member of the Portland Golf Club.

Red Sox Open In St. Louis; Yanks Wavering

ST. LOUIS, July 30—One watching the Red Sox and Yankees sharing the same Chicago hotel feared they would lose. The Yankees were all but embracing on a divan, while respective

Emerson Dickman, manager, and the Yankees were all but embracing on a divan, while respective the Yankees were all but embracing on a divan, while respective

The novel experience of being attached to the top rung by the slender threads has made them no end affable and amiable. They still opine they'll win again.

Continued on Page 25, Column 5

Wilfred Crossley of Norfolk, N. E. amateur medalist, who meets Dick Chapman of Connecticut in semifinals today

Baseball Standings

NATIONAL LEAGUE
Club	Won	Lost	P.C.	G.B.
Pittsburgh	56	31	.644
New York	53	38	.582	5
Chicago	50	39	.562	7
Cincinnati	49	41	.544	8 1/2
Brooklyn	41	48	.461	16
St. Louis	39	46	.459	16
Philadelphia	27	59	.314	28 1/2

*Games behind leaders.

RESULTS YESTERDAY
Bees 2, Cards 1.
Giants 5, Reds 4.
Phillies 5, Cubs 4 (12 innings).
Pirates 7, Dodgers 6.
GAMES TODAY
St. Louis at Boston.
Pittsburgh at Brooklyn.
Cincinnati at New York.
Chicago at Philadelphia.

BASEBALL'S BIG SIX

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS)
Player	Club	AB	R	HR
Avril	Indians	62	297	68
Lombardi	Reds	75	219	26
Peck	Red Sox	85	217	20
Low	Yankees	80	211	20
Morris	Cardinals	82	206	12
Burger	Reds	81	222	26

AMERICAN LEAGUE
Club	Won	Lost	P.C.	G.B.
New York	54	30	.643
Cleveland	52	30	.634	1
Boston	50	33	.602	2
Washington	46	46	.500	12
Detroit	44	48	.478	14
Chicago	35	42	.450	15 1/2
Philadelphia	29	51	.363	28
St. Louis	26	54	.325	31

*Games behind leaders.

RESULTS YESTERDAY
Tigers 3, Athletics 2.
Indians 12, Senators 4.
Yankees 4, White Sox 3.
Other clubs not scheduled.

GAMES TODAY

Boston at St. Louis.
New York at Chicago.
Philadelphia at Detroit (2).
Washington at Cleveland.

NATIONAL LEAGUE FIELD
DOUBLEHEADER TOMORROW at 1:30
BEES vs. ST. LOUIS

Starts at National League Field, No. 9th.

Merritt

Wrestling Results

NORTH BRIGHTON, N. J.—Bobby Mann, 131, Chicago, declared winner over Pat Davis, 135, Boston, when latter was disqualified for rough tactics after match had gone 11 minutes 44 seconds.

Wrestling results continued on page 25, column 5.

Kramer Grasps At Last Straw

By MURRAY KRAMER

BEST BET—LAST STRAW, NINTH RACE

Last Straw needs only to break well to take in all the ninth race futurity at Woburnland Park tonight and gets the nod as the best bet on the card.

FIRST RACE—FUTURITY

JUST CLOSING—MUNYON'S TAVERN—TWINKLES LADDER

Track closed—Camden Lager 24 3/4.

PP	Disc	Post	Time	Post	Time	Post	Time
1	Just Straw	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0
2	Twinkles Ladder	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0
3	Twinkles Ladder	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0
4	Twinkles Ladder	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0
5	Twinkles Ladder	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0
6	Twinkles Ladder	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0
7	Twinkles Ladder	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0
8	Twinkles Ladder	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0

SECOND RACE—5-16THS MILE

JUST BATTLE BLAZE—CLIPPY ALDEN—NEW ISSUE

PP	Disc	Post	Time	Post	Time	Post	Time
1	Just Battle Blaze	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0
2	Clippy Alden	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0
3	New Issue	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0
4	New Issue	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0
5	New Issue	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0
6	New Issue	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0
7	New Issue	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0
8	New Issue	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0

THIRD RACE—FUTURITY

PHARO—RENOVME—GLENN CONDON

PP	Disc	Post	Time	Post	Time	Post	Time
1	Pharo	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0
2	Renovme	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0
3	Glenn Condon	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0
4	Glenn Condon	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0
5	Glenn Condon	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0
6	Glenn Condon	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0
7	Glenn Condon	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0
8	Glenn Condon	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0

FOURTH RACE—FUTURITY

BRINDLE BUDDY—POLICE CRUIER—HOWARD DEE

PP	Disc	Post	Time	Post	Time	Post	Time
1	Brindle Buddy	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0
2	Police Cruiser	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0
3	Howard Dee	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0
4	Howard Dee	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0
5	Howard Dee	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0
6	Howard Dee	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0
7	Howard Dee	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0
8	Howard Dee	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0

FIFTH RACE—5-16THS MILE

MARIE H. BILLETTE—MY BETSY ANN

PP	Disc	Post	Time	Post	Time	Post	Time
1	Marie H. Billette	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0
2	My Betsy Ann	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0
3	My Betsy Ann	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0
4	My Betsy Ann	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0
5	My Betsy Ann	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0
6	My Betsy Ann	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0
7	My Betsy Ann	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0
8	My Betsy Ann	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0

SIXTH RACE—5-16THS MILE

DISTANT R. SKY—GIVE HIM TO ME

PP	Disc	Post	Time	Post	Time	Post	Time
1	Distant R. Sky	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0
2	Give Him To Me	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0
3	Give Him To Me	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0
4	Give Him To Me	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0
5	Give Him To Me	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0
6	Give Him To Me	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0
7	Give Him To Me	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0
8	Give Him To Me	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0

SEVENTH RACE—5-16THS MILE

MUSKY—SHEILA MOH—DICK BY

PP	Disc	Post	Time	Post	Time	Post	Time
1	Musky	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0
2	Sheila Moh	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0
3	Dick By	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0
4	Dick By	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0
5	Dick By	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0
6	Dick By	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0
7	Dick By	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0
8	Dick By	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0

EIGHTH RACE—5-16THS MILE

LEDMORE—MUGAMBI—MY PARDNER

PP	Disc	Post	Time	Post	Time	Post	Time
1	Ledmore	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0
2	Mugambi	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0
3	My Partner	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0
4	My Partner	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0
5	My Partner	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0
6	My Partner	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0
7	My Partner	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0
8	My Partner	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0

NINTH RACE—FUTURITY

LAST STRAW—SNOW SHOES—VILLAGE LASS

PP	Disc	Post	Time	Post	Time	Post	Time
1	Last Straw	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0
2	Snow Shoes	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0
3	Village Lass	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0
4	Village Lass	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0
5	Village Lass	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0
6	Village Lass	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0
7	Village Lass	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0
8	Village Lass	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0

TENTH RACE—REVERE COURSE—675 YARDS

CAREFUL PLAYER—BLACK CASH—VENUS D.

PP	Disc	Post	Time	Post	Time	Post	Time
1	Careful Player	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0
2	Black Cash	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0
3	Venus D.	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0
4	Venus D.	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0
5	Venus D.	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0
6	Venus D.	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0
7	Venus D.	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0
8	Venus D.	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0

Revere Entries For Tomorrow

PP	Disc	Post	Time	Post	Time	Post	Time
1	Revere	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0
2	Revere	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0
3	Revere	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0
4	Revere	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0
5	Revere	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0
6	Revere	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0
7	Revere	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0
8	Revere	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0

Taunton Tips

By MATTHEW KEANEY

BEST BET—NINTH RACE, CRUIER

FIRST RACE—FUTURITY

First Half Daily Double

SEVEN TRAFFIC—WICKSALL

MORE SPEED

PP Disc Post Time Post Time Post Time

1	Seven Traffic	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0
2	Wicksall	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0
3	Wicksall	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0
4	Wicksall	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0
5	Wicksall	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0
6	Wicksall	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0
7	Wicksall	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0
8	Wicksall	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0

SECOND RACE—FUTURITY

Second Half Daily Double

TRAFFIC LAD—JIMP MONEY

PP Disc Post Time Post Time Post Time

1	Traffic Lad	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0
2	Jimp Money	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0
3	Jimp Money	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0
4	Jimp Money	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0
5	Jimp Money	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0
6	Jimp Money	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0
7	Jimp Money	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0
8	Jimp Money	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0	1:10.0

THIRD RACE—5-16 MILE

BRANDY JOE—JUST VERA

PP Disc Post Time Post Time Post Time

BRANDY JOE JUST VERA		MISS DILLIE
1	Brandy Joe	1:10.0	Fred Palmer
2	Just Vera	1:10.0	Tom Seal, Jr.
3	Miss Dillie	1:10.0	W. H. Smith
4	Samuel	1:10.0	Hubert Bryant
5	Mad Dillie	1:10.0	W. H. Smith
6	Wally S.	1:10.0	Flower MacCall
7	Francis Mason	1:10.0	W. H. Smith
8	Indian Pioneer	1:10.0	A. I. Smith

COFFERS TO PLAY FOR FUND

By BILL GRIMES

Within a few days, the Boston Evening American and Sunday Advertiser will announce the date and site of an exhibition match by Horton Smith, Lewson Little, Jimmy Thomson and Harry Cooper for the Xmas Basket Fund. Two years ago Thomson and Little played Francis Quinlan and Jesse Guilford for the Basket Fund at Belmont Country Club and attracted one of the largest galleries that ever turned out in this country.

Not that they ever ease up, but the Bees will bear down particularly hard this afternoon against the Cardinals in order to set the stage for tomorrow's double header with the Gas House Gang. . . . Johnny Lanning pitched a nice game against the Cards yesterday and improved his standing in the community. Since he has come under the wing of Casey Stengel, Lanning has not been throwing so many "nothing" balls with men on base. . . . It took "Old Case" to discover that glaring weakness in Lanning's repertoire. . . .

Young Joe Morahan must have dropped four or five more pounds while his pal Leo Brown was playing the 18th and 19th holes yesterday against Mel Merritt. . . . Robert D. Pryde, who is president of the Connecticut Golf Association, returned recently from a trip around the world. He says that because the population of Japan is increasing at the rate of a million per year, it is getting more and more difficult to obtain permits to build golf courses. He also imparted the information that there are more golf courses per capita in South Africa than in any part of the world. Pryde has made a life study of the Royal and Ancient game and is recognized as one of the best and most reliable authorities.

John Ford, professional at the Blue Hill Country Club, played his first full round of the season on Thursday. He was stricken with a painful ailment during the winter and has undergone two operations.

Before the Bees broke camp at Bradenton, Casey Stengel stated that he'd like nothing better than to play the entire schedule of 154 games against the St. Louis Cardinals. He predicted in March that the Cards weren't going anywhere. . . . Sam Brandon, who has become a millionaire since he entered baseball, is retrenching. He's too smart to put back the money he has received from his Cardinals. St. watch for a trade which will startle the baseball world.

Special Bus Service To 'Gansett Races

During the coming racing season at Narragansett Park, which opens Monday, the New England Transportation Company will operate a special bus service direct to the track, leaving 38 Park square each day at 12:10 noon.

Boxing Results

SOMERSET, N. H.—Val Nadeau, 147, boxer, knocked out Steve Brown, 135, Lowell, Mass., in fifth round of scheduled ten.

LONG BRANCH, N. J.—Max Fisher, 135, Newark, defeated Pat Baker, 139, Newark, Conn., four rounds, stopped by rain.

SILVER DOGUE, Pa.—Matty Raymond, 185, Philadelphia, defeated Gus Duran, 187, Philadelphia, ten rounds.

NORTH ADAMS—Manny Buckley, Belknap, defeated Tony Garcia, Taunton, six rounds.

Flora Martin, North Adams, defeated Irish Jimmy Campy, Boston, six rounds.

Stengel Happy As West Clicks

Riggs, Cooke In Net Final

SEABRIGHT, N. J., July 30 (INS).—Elwood T. Cooke of Portland, Ore., defeated Wilmer Allison of Austin, Tex., 6-3, 6-4, 6-4, and advanced into the final round of the Seabright invitation tennis tournament, where today he meets Robert Riggs of Chicago.

Riggs beat Frank Kovacs of Oakland, Cal., 4-6, 6-3, 6-2, 6-0, in the semifinals.

The women's final will be between Alice Marble of Palm Springs, Cal., former national champion, and Dorothy May Bundy of Santa Monica, Cal., who halted their way through tough semifinals.

Miss Marble beat Virginia Wolfenden of San Francisco, 6-4, 6-4, and Miss Bundy beat Mrs. Sarah Baird Fabian of Boston, 7-5, 6-4.

Somerville Bids For 7th Crown

LONDON, Ont., July 30 (INS).—Ross Somerville, London Hunt and Country Club, defending champion, meets Adams, 21-year-old Columbia, Mo., school teacher, in the finals of the 46th annual Canadian amateur golf championship tournament at the London Hunt and Country Club today.

Somerville qualified for the finals in an easy manner, defeating Ven Savage, Salt Lake City, 12 up and 11 to go.

The victory of Adams was spectacular and thrilled the large gallery. Adams finished one up on Edwin C. Kingsley of Salt Lake City in the 36-hole match. Adams squared the match on the 35th when he sank an 18-foot putt for a birdie 3.

Somerville has won the Canadian crown six times.

Australians Rout Mexican Net Foes

KANSAS CITY, July 30 (INS).—The strongly favored Australian team got off to a two-match lead in the singles as the Mexicans went down in defeat in the North American zone Davis cup series.

The veteran Adrian Quist, playing consistently good tennis, vanquished Daniel Hernandez of Mexico in straight sets in the opening match, 6-1, 7-5, 6-4.

John Bromwich, also of the "Aussies," defeated Eugenio Tapia, 6-4, 6-4, 6-4, in the second match.

Bees, Sox Averages

Player	AB	R	H	R	R	CT
Peck, 2b	215	11	101	191	363
Yemshik, 1b	250	68	107	54	7	.328
Conner, cf	206	11	116	39	317
Crawson, ss	274	96	87	45	30	.317
Chapman, rf	204	45	82	42	4	.316
Green, 3b	263	38	90	68	3	.314
Hoover, 2b	211	51	78	43	0	.288
Lesane, c	219	53	68	27	0	.283
Wilson, p	58	4	10	6	0	.263
Connerkamp, cf	100	23	25	9	0	.242
Gonsenheimer, p	33	4	8	0	0	.242
Bagley, p	37	4	8	0	0	.216
Greene, p	20	0	12	0	0	.200
Greene, p	20	0	9	8	0	.182
McNair, ss-2b	79	6	14	6	1	.179
Morreau, p	38	3	6	2	0	.153
Wagner, p	15	2	2	0	0	.125
Coiffer, cf	10	1	3	0	0	.100
McKee, p	14	1	0	0	0	.000
McKee, p	3	0	0	0	0	.000
Rogers, p	0	0	0	0	0	.000

Player	W	L	Pct.
Rogers	14	0	1.000
Green	14	3	.824
Dickinson	5	2	.714
Gonsenheimer	5	2	.714
Bagley	5	0	.615
Wilson	5	0	.553
McNair	4	1	.500
Morreau	4	0	.455
Wagner	1	3	.250

Well, Well!

We must look into this yachting sport if all the skipperesses are as fair as Betty Patten (above). That's the governor's trophy in Betty's arms.

Yacht Week At Quincy

The most extensive racing program ever witnessed in Massachusetts Bay will be launched tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock when Governor Charles F. Hurley officially opens Quincy Bay Race Week.

The program will see more than 300 boats participating, numbering 40 different classes.

The boats will come from yacht clubs as far distant as Newburyport, Swampscott and Plymouth.

Outboard motor races also will be held in addition to the sailing classes. Governor Hurley will present the prizes at the end of the races.

Young Gardener Improves Daily

By WALTER KILEY

If ever the Bees had a manager deserving of a medal for distinguished service, it's one Charles Dillon Stengel, present incumbent of the position.

That Or Case's long and painstaking efforts are beginning to show some signs of bearing fruit grows more evident each day as one by one his disciples put into practice the lessons he's been drilling into them from earliest season.

Latest to blossom forth after long grooming is Max West. West has been kept in the Bees' lineup because his superiors considered him a hitter with great prospects.

They were willing to sacrifice his apparent shortcomings in order to get that extra and much-needed offensive strength.

His play in left field all year has been nothing to rave about, his biggest weakness being slowness to get underway.

But of a sudden the big Californian found himself.

The beehive gallery sat up and took notice Wednesday when, in the first game of the doubleheader with Cincinnati, he raced into deep left center, speared Herschberger's long fly and threw to Fletcher at first, doubling Frank McCormick before the latter had a chance to get back to the bag with a rifle.

In the opener against the Cards he came through with two magical catches which silenced those critics who said West would never develop into a fielder.

West robbed Rockie Lynn Myers of a sure double in the fifth and Terry Moore of a possible triple in the sixth, with two remarkable running catches to the left field wall.

The kid's feats are all the more remarkable in view of a lean and hampering charleyhorse. But he's been trying hard to better himself, has taken all the advice given him, and merits the improvement he's showing.

Today Jim Turner hooks up with Bob Weiland as the Bees and Cards stage the second game of their series, one which winds up with tomorrow's doubleheader. Lou Fette and Danny MacFayden go tomorrow.

30,000 to See Fenway Sports

Boston's brilliant field day at Fenway Park Monday can't miss clicking.

According to no less an authority than Judge Fuchs, who is in charge of tickets, there have been 18,900 general admission tickets sold and 2300 box and reserved seats have gone.

This figure of 21,900 does not include the advance sale which has been going on at Fenway Park.

With any kind of a break in weather, the crowd should hit close to 30,000 for the six-hour show.

Plans have all been completed, and the only doubtful performer as noted is Jack Dempsey. According to the latest reports, though, Dempsey is on his way East and will be able to be here for the big occasion.

The prizes which will be given are worth $400, and there will be grand drawings for all of them including cash awards up to $100.

Taunton Double Pays $364.60

TAUNTON, July 30—The daily double paid $364.60 at the Taunton dog track when Ben's Ann and Pat Tebbell, both outsiders, came romping home. Both greyhounds paid $15.00 to win.

Busy Day For Cape League

FALMOUTH, July 30.—Two doubleheaders are scheduled to be fought in the Cape League tomorrow afternoon. Falmouth is playing host to Orleans at the beautiful Falmouth Heights Beach park, while Harwich is down to scuffle Bourne at the Bourne High School diamond.

Both twin bills are listed to start at 2 o'clock. Managers of the four Cape teams are sure that the Sabbath doubleheaders will draw capably crowds.

Bill Boehner, pilot of the Falmouth contingent, expects some 3000 persons to turn nine, with a be on hand for the Falmouth-Orleans bargain bill, while Bill Lane and "Babe" Driscoll, co-managers of the Bourne machine, have made arrangements to handle a crowd of 1500 at the Bourne-Harwich get-together.

"Big Buzz" Buzz Harvey Kenedrick limited a very heavy hitting Falmouth nine to three hits Friday. The Canal Club welcomed Falmouth, 9-4, behind Kendrick's smart chuckle.

Nell Mahoney's hustling Harwich charges continued to pace the Cranberry circuit. The Harwich gentlemen seem to have more balance than the other teams, with a good hurling department and loads of punch at the plate and infield.

Orleans is the team Harwich must watch. "Buzz" Harvey's outfit has lots of class and spirit.

Dickman Hurls For Red Sox

Continued from Page 23

but they're anything but positive in their declarations.

They regard the Croninmen as every bit as dangerous as the Indians. Or so says Mr. McCarthy. Among the New York scribbles who have been watching the club since the bell rang there's a wide difference of opinion as to the Yanks' chances of repeating.

"I'm satisfied," said one very astute observer, "among the fourthesters, that either the Red Sox or Indians could win the flag, but I'm wondering whether either will discover the fact in time to turn the trick."

"The greatest handicap either of these two contenders is laboring under at present is fear of the Yanks. If they could shake their inferiority complex, I think we'd be beaten out."

So much for the Yanks and New York's views on the pennant race. The Red Sox have no time to dwell upon either at the moment. They have three games to play, and they hope, three games to win from the Browns.

Emerson Dickman, seeking his fifth straight triumph, is Manager Joe Cronin's mound choice for today's opener.

The Sox lost a half-game of ground to both the Yanks and Indians while they loafed yesterday, which leaves them 3½ games from the top and 2½ games back of second as they enter this engagement with the Mount City entry, which it has beaten 11 times in 13 starts to date.

Bettors Ruth's Mark

BETROU, (INS).—Hank Greenberg hit two more home runs—for a total of 35 or one ahead of Babe Ruth's record for the same date—and the Detroit Tigers went on to a 9 to 2 victory over the Philadelphia Athletics.

Greenberg Nears Ruth Homer Record

By Associated Press

Along about this time every year, the figure filberts sharpen up their pencils, scribble numbers all over the nearest blank spaces, and confidently conclude that Joe Zich or Luke Glots has a chance to bust Babe Ruth's 11-year-old record of 60 homers for one season.

Baseball men tell you those filberts might just as well figure up their next year's income tax, because they'd come as close to the right answer. For, when you start monkeying with the Babe's all-time fence-busting high, the way to do it is to begin with the final month of the season—that gaudy September when he parked 17 among the cash customers in 30 days—and work back.

GREENBERG ON SPREE

This year, however, the boys might have something there. Big Hankus Pankus Greenberg is on a spree. Right now he's 15 games in front of the Bam's record four-base pace.

Now, don't get the idea that big Hank is going to do it. The odds are all against him. He's a right-handed hitter, and the American League parks are a lot friendlier to the fellows swinging from the south side of the plate.

He still has to meet up with Ruth's merriest month. And the Detroit lineup, as now constituted, offers opposition pitchers a chance to walk the six-foot-four Jewish jolter rather than let him tag one of their select offerings.

On the other hand, there's Hank with 35 round-trip whacks to his credit already. He hit two more yesterday as the Tigers trampled the Athletics, 9-2—the third time in a week and the sixth time this season he has paired his pokes.

GETTING HOT

He's getting hotter all the time, has clouded 13 this month to date, and is the only man to hammer one in every park in the league. Ruth belted his 35th in his 105th game. Greenberg's 35th came in his 99th yesterday.

All in all, it's safe to say that if Hank can start September five homers in front of the Babe's pace, he has an even chance of wiping that mark off the books.

War Admiral Goes Today

SARATOGA SPRINGS, N. Y., July 30 (AP)—War Admiral, Samuel B. Riddle's horse which is regaining his popularity with the race fans since his owner quit worrying about weights, track conditions and the like, starts again today in the $7500 Saratoga Handicap.

It will be the Admiral's second race since the Saratoga season opened this week, and that furnishes a sharp contrast to the discussions and delays that marked his earlier appearances and non-appearances this year. It all works in favor of the game son of Man o' War.

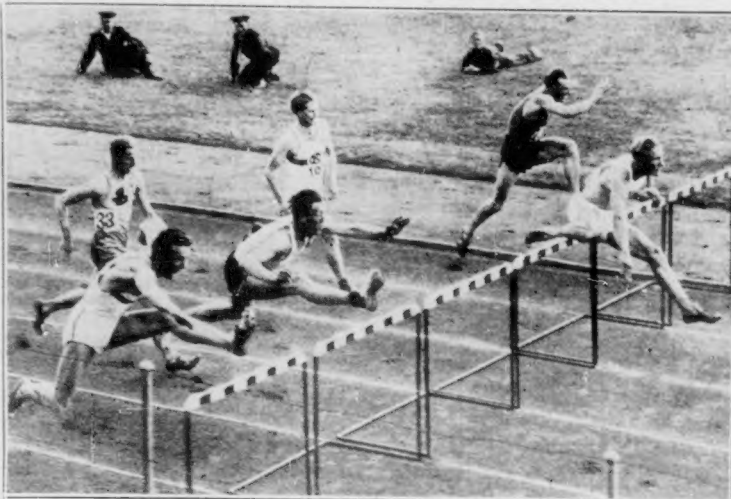

With a 130-pound impost, four pounds more than he carried in the Wilson mile Wednesday, War Admiral is favored to beat the same two horses he raced then, William Woodard's Fighting Fox and William Ziegler, Jr.'s, Epoca, and four others.

Epoca may find the mile and a quarter distance of the Saratoga more to her liking but it may be too far for Fighting Fox, despite the light weight of 106 pounds. Other entries are John Hay Whitney's Flying Scot, Parker Corning's Unfailing, the Shandon Farm's Burning Star and Walter M. Jeffords' Regal Lily.

Two other important stakes are on today's card, the United States Hotel stakes, a six-furlong dash for two-year-olds which should be won close to $10,000, and the $2500 Shillelagh Steeplechase.

The juvenile test has drawn such good racers as George D. Widener's flash stakes winner, Eight Thirty, Ziegler's El Chico, Woodward's Johnstown, and Mrs. Ethel V. Marx' Heel In. Thomas Hitchcock's entry of Rioter and Batilla head the steeplechase field.

Wolcott Shows Heels to Swedes

Fred Wolcott of Rice Institute (Texas) is shown leading his competitors in the 110-meter hurdle race at Sweden's international track meet. He was an easy victor in 11:2. Second (above) is Lidman of Sweden.

Diz Dean

In Winning Mood

PHILADELPHIA, July 30 (AP)—Dizzy Dean, with a record of five wins and no losses to flaunt at any who doubt he's still a great pitcher, was called to the Shibe Park mound against the Phillies today to hold the Chicago Cubs in the National League pennant race.

Three of his fellow hurlers failed to best the last-place home team yesterday. But Jerome Herman must back up some blazing.

"With my luck we'll be on top of the league in a month," he boasts.

Dean is waiting only for a crack at the league-leading Pirates.

He came here Thursday before his teammates just to watch the Buccaneers in action. They kept their winning stride, but Dean, between hot-dogs, said:

"Those Pirates ain't so tough. I'll stop them with my dizzy stuff. They're fast-ball hitters."

HOMERS AID GIANTS

NEW YORK, July 30 (INS)—Mel Ott and Bob Seeds belted out home runs as the Giants beat the Cincinnati Reds, 5 to 4.

TABLE OF RUNS

AMERICAN LEAGUE

Rich for day—Cleveland

Low for day—Philadelphia

Team	W	L	S	M	T	W	T	F	T
BOSTON	1	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	0
Cleveland	1	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	0
Chicago	1	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	0
Detroit	1	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	0
New York	1	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	0
Philadelphia	1	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	0
St. Louis	1	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	0
Washington	1	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	0

NATIONAL LEAGUE

High for day—Pittsburgh

Low for day—St. Louis

Team	W	L	S	M	T	W	T	F	T
BOSTON	1	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	0
Cincinnati	1	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	0
Chicago	1	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	0
Cleveland	1	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	0
New York	1	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	0
Pittsburgh	1	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	0
St. Louis	1	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	0
Philadelphia	1	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	0

*N game.

ALLEN HAS FIELD DAY

CLEVELAND, July 30 (INS)—Johnny Allen hit a home run with two teammates on base and also a double, and thus hit and pitched the Indians to a 12 to 4 victory over the Washington Senators.

Ask Court

For Decision

LOUISVILLE, Ky., July 30 (AP)—

A "hard-hitting" baseball team called upon the circuit court today to act as umpire in its suit to determine whether it must play in a park with a deep outfield fence instead of its own field where home runs are better.

Chester Bowles of nearby Jeffersonville seeks to enjoin the Louisville Amateur Baseball Federation from forcing his team to play away from its home grounds to-morrow under a threat of being dropped from the league.

Bowles said that at the park where the federation wants his team to play "the fielders have been playing deep and catching balls which, on our diamond, would have gone over the fence for home runs."

CUBS LOSE ON ERROR

PHILADELPHIA, July 30 (INS)—With runners on first and second, shortstop Bill Jurgens of the Chicago Cubs fumbled an easy grounder in the 12th inning and the Phillies won the game by 5 to 4.

Hagen, Jr. Trails Daddy

ST. PAUL, Minn., July 30 (AP)—Walter Hagen says "the boy will do."

The "boy" is Walter Hagen, Jr., a member of Notre Dame's golf team and a passer, in the opinion of his famous golfing father, of enough talent to "some day make him quite a player."

Yesterday, in the opening round of the $7500 St. Paul open, the two Hagens played together in a major turney for the first time. When "The Haig" finally turned in a 77 he said:

"The kid's got a magnificent golf head," said Walter, Jr., "today's the day I should have beat dad for the first time." Young Hagen shot a 79.

NEEDS PRACTICE

"He needs plenty of practice and a few years of playing experience before he can expect to get his shots to clicking," said the elder Hagen, "but he doesn't let galleries bother him (they attracted almost 1000 spectators) and he has plenty of courage. If I hadn't been lucky on the last nine he'd have beaten me today."

Hagen, one of the most colorful figures in golf, has produced his held almost every title in the world and made an estimated $1,500,000 through his ability on the fairways.

The Hagen scores were off a fast pace which saw 30 players clip par on the 30-36-72 Keller course layout for the new low scoring record for the event in the first round play. Leading the parade into today's 18 hole test and with bright chances of being near the top for Sunday's final 36 holes were Willie Goggin, San Bruno, Calif.; Ernie Harrison, of Chicago, and Frank Stuhler of Jamaica, N. Y.; all with sensational 67s. A stroke back were Harry Bassler, Long Beach, Calif.; Bill Kinsler, Louisville, and Tammy Armour of Chicago.

DOERING HOLDS MARK

Art Doering of Chicago captured low amateur honors for the day with a 69, a scoring bracket which included Harry Cooper, three time winner of the event; Tony Manero, former open champion; John Revolta and Lloyd Mangrum. Lawson Little, former amateur king, and Gene Sarazen scored 70s with Ed Dudley of Philadelphia among the 71 shooters.

"Slammin' Sam" Snead of White Sulphur Springs, W. Va., leading money winner of the year, scored a par 72 to stick in the fight for top money of $1600.

Dilboy Amateur Show Wednesday

The Dilboy Post, V. F. W., amateur boxing night will be staged Wednesday at Dilboy Field, Somerville.

Director Fred Russo announced that fighting would be staged in the 126, 135, 160 and heavyweight classes, open, and the 147-pound class for novices. This gives the young welterweights in the section a chance to move into the limelight.

Rockingham Mutuels

For Friday, July 29
1-2-7 Races $112.36
1-2-3-5-7 Races 178.68
7 Races 245.04

SPORTS MIRROR

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS)
TODAY a year ago—Amie Marble, U. S. champion, defeated Jadwiga Jodanowska, Poland, 6-3, 5-7, 8-6, in final of Sea Bright Invitation tournament.
Three years ago—Paul E. Fuchs, president of Boston Braves since 1925, forfeited majority stock to Charles F. Adams; Bill McKechnie named president-manager for remainder of year.
Five years ago—Dixie Dean, Cardinals, set new minor league record, 19 runs, 17 hits, 10 homers, 10 RBIs, 10 runs scored in 18 plateaus.

They'll Do It Every Time -- Hatlo

SEE US BEFORE GOING TO THE RACES
HOW TO PLAY THE RACES AND WIN
Reliable DOG AND HORSE RACING SELECTIONS
BARKER NEWS
3 School St. at Washington St.

Judge Aids Dad Who Stole for Children

2 CENTS

BOSTON EVENING AMERICAN

New England's Greatest Evening Newspaper

8

The only Boston evening newspaper with direct wire services from Associated Press and International News Service

BOSTON, SATURDAY, JULY 30, 1933

Copyright, 1933, by N. E. Newspaper Publishing Co.

Entered as second-class matter at Boston, Mass., Oct. 3, 1878.

PRICE TWO CENTS

Judge Aids Man Who STOLE MILK FOR BABES

BROCKTON, July 30—A kindly judge today reunited Alfred S. Bartkus, 28, with his wife and two small children, the starving little family for whom he allegedly stole milk.

After Bartkus pleaded not guilty in District Court to a larceny charge, arresting officers told Judge William E. Rowe that their prisoner had taken canned goods, including canned milk, from a store so that his family would not starve.

The jurist looked to the rear of the court where a weeping wife held a four-months-old infant, while a two-year-old boy tugged at her skirts.

Then, he continued the case until August 2, held Bartkus in $500 bail but allowed him to go home in personal recognizance.

Bartkus, who lives in an attic

Continued on Page 7, Column 1

15,000 on Relief Get Milk Supply

Without milk rations for 24 hours, more than 15,000 Greater Boston welfare families today received double rations, after a re-routing of milk trains from the New Hampshire flood regions through Maine.

Balances and Receipts

WASHINGTON, JULY 28 (AP)
Treasury Balance $2,124,859,112
Customs Receipts $209,559,199

Quality of mercy showed itself in Brockton Court today when Alfred S. Bartkus, 28, appeared on charges of stealing food for his hungry family. Judge W. E. Rowe sent him home. Mrs. Bartkus and their two children are shown at court.

Boston Evening American Photo

2 Arlington Fires Rout 14

Two fires in Arlington drove 14 persons from their homes today.

An attic blaze flared through the roof of the home of Mr. and Mrs. Aaron Morahan in Newland road, Arlington, as the parents and eight children fled to the street. In Arlington Heights Mr. and Mrs. Edward Carroll and two children fled a fire caused, police said, by a cigarette which had fallen into an overstuffed chair.

OIL 'SLICK' IN OCEAN CLUE TO CLIPPER

MANILA, July 30 (AP)—The army transport Meigs found a large patch of oil on the surface of the Pacific Ocean today, indicating the missing Hawaii clipper may have plunged into the sea 500 miles from Manila.

The Meigs made no mention of sighting any wreckage from the luxurious flying boat which disappeared with 15 men on a flight from Guam to Manila Friday. (Thursday night Pacific time.)

Two lifeboats were put out by the transport to search the tell-tale oil slick but were recalled at nightfall. The transport stood by where the slick was found, intending to resume search at dawn Sunday. (Saturday afternoon in the United States.)

Her searchlights played on the surrounding sea but her captain said he did not expect much to be accomplished before daylight.

The Meigs said the coating of heavy oil was about 500 feet in circumference, which experts said was "quite large" for a plane the size of the clipper.

COLLECT SAMPLES

The slick was sighted approximately 50 miles west by southwest of the last position reported by the Clipper at 8:09 p. m. Thursday, Pacific standard time. This would mean that, if the slick were

Clipper Plane Missing Over Pacific

J. W. JEWETT

DR. FRED C. MEIER

Continued on Page 1, Column 3

At Nat'l League Field

ST. LOUIS	BEES
Moore, cf	DMaggio, cf
Brown, 2b	Cooney, rf
Padgett, rf	Garns, 3b
Medwick, rf	Cuccinello, 2b
Mize, 1b	West, lf
Gutteridge, 3b	Fletcher, 1b
Gwen, c	Lopes, c
Myers, ss	Wardner, ss
Weiland, p	Turner, p

Game starts at 3 o'clock.

Transport Meigs Finds Clue to Plane

W. R. Hearst Gives A Timely Message

In the Boston Sunday Advertiser tomorrow there will appear an editorial "THE AMERICAN RACE" in which William Randolph Hearst gives sound advice on what constitutes "good Americanism."